

SUMMARY: The document below is a note by Dr John Dee of Oxford's 'favorable Letters' given to Dee in 1570.

The original document is damaged. What remains of the note reads:

[] honorable Erle of Oxford his favorable Letters Ao 1570.

For the mathematician, astrologer and antiquary, Dr John Dee (1527–1609), see the ODNB entry.

For a full transcript of the page on which the note is found, see Crossley, James, ed., Autobiographical Tracts of Dr. John Dee, (Chetham Society, 1851), p. 10 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/autobiographical00deej#page/10/mode/2up>.

See also Halliwell, James Orchard et al, eds., John Dee's Diary, Catalogue of Manuscripts and Selected Letters, (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2013), p. 10 at:

https://books.google.ca/books?id=IO_sPejJolcC&pg=RA1-PA12&lpg=RA1-PA12&dq=%22Dee%22+%22After+my+journey%22&source=bl&ots=F7gdlZT-bT&sig=PudINNRto3bHthmieXU5dJzPv3A&hl=en&sa=X&ved=0ahUKEwjFrbjr2tnUAhUB-WMKHTsPC34Q6AEIjAA#v=onepage&q=%22Dee%22%20%22After%20my%20journey%22&f=false.