

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 20 June 1552 and proved 20 October 1552, of Sir Robert Dormer of Wing, Buckinghamshire.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

The testator was the grandson of Geoffrey Dormer the elder (d. 9 March 1503) by his first marriage to a wife named Margery. In 1498 Geoffrey Dormer the elder (d. 9 March 1503) settled the manor of Baldington in Thame on his son Geoffrey the younger and his male heirs, with remainders to his (Geoffrey the elder's) sons Michael Dormer (d. 20 September 1545), Peter Dormer (d.1555), Edward Dormer (d.1539), William Dormer (d.1506) and Thomas Dormer. See Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. II, pp. 420-1. For the will of Sir Michael Dormer, see TNA PROB 11/30/546. For the will of Edward Dormer, see TNA PROB 11/28/4.

It thus appears that of the twelve sons of Geoffrey Dormer the elder (d. 9 March 1503), only the six above-named were still living in 1498, and that William Dormer (d.1506), as the eldest surviving son of Geoffrey Dormer's first marriage, was his heir.

The testator was the only son of William Dormer (d.1506), who appears to have been twice married. In his will William Dormer leaves £300 and a life estate in a third part of his lands to his wife, Agnes, whose surname is unknown, and who was apparently his second wife, as according to Richardson and the Visitation of Buckinghamshire, William Dormer's first wife was Jane Launcelyn, the daughter and co-heiress of Sir John Launcelyn, by whom he is said to have had an only son, the testator, Sir Robert Dormer (d.1552), and four daughters, one of whom is said to have married Sir John Baldwin, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas. See Rylands, W. Harry, ed., The Visitation of the County of Buckingham, Vol. LVIII, (London: Harleian Society, 1909), p. 41; and Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. III, p. 255.

The testator married Jane Newdigate (d. 7 July 1571), by whom he had an only son:

* Sir William Dormer (d. 17 May 1575), who married firstly, Mary Sidney (d. 10 February 1542), the daughter of Sir William Sidney (d.1554) and Anne Pakenham (d.1543), by whom he had two sons, Thomas and Robert, who died young, and two daughters, Jane Dormer, who married the Duke of Feria, and Anne Dormer, who married Sir Walter Hungerford.

Sir William Dormer married secondly, Dorothy Catesby (d.1613), the daughter of Anthony Catesby (d.1554), esquire, of Whiston, Northamptonshire, by whom he had one son, Sir Robert Dormer, 1st Baron Dormer, who married Elizabeth Browne, the daughter of Anthony Browne, 1st Viscount Montague, and six daughters: Mary Dormer, who married Anthony Browne (1552–1592), twin brother of Mary Browne, mother of Henry Wriothesley, 3rd Earl of Southampton; Grissel Dormer; Katherine Dormer, who married John St John, 2nd Baron St John of Bletso (d.1596); Frances Dormer; Amphyllis Dormer; and Margaret Dormer (d.1637), who married Sir Henry Constable (d.1607). After Sir William Dormer's death his widow, Dorothy, married Sir William Pelham (d.1587).
