

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 8 October 1464 and proved 15 May 1465, of William Marowe (c.1419-c.1464), three times Master of the Grocers' Company, and Lord Mayor of London in 1455, whose daughter, Joan Marowe, married Sir William Clopton (1450 - 20 February 1531), grandfather of Mary Clopton (d.1584), who married Sir William Cordell, one of the five trustees appointed by Oxford in an indenture of 30 January 1575 prior to his departure on his continental tour.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

Testator's parents

The testator is said to have been the son of William Marowe (d.1430) and his wife, Jane. See Wedgwood, Josiah C., History of Parliament: Biographies of the Members of the Commons House 1439-1509, (London: His Majesty's Stationery Office, 1936), p. 576 at:

<https://archive.org/details/in.ernet.dli.2015.210096/page/n643/mode/2up>

Testator's siblings

According to the will below, the testator had a sister, Agnes Marowe.

MARRIAGES AND ISSUE

Testator's first marriage

According to Wedgwood, supra, the testator first wife was named Isabel.

Testator's second marriage

The testator married secondly, about 1455, Katherine Rich, the daughter of the London mercer, Richard Rich (d.1464). For the Latin will of Richard Rich, see TNA PROB 11/5/84.

By Katherine Rich the testator had three sons and three daughters, all underage and unmarried when the testator made his will:

* William Marowe (d.1499), esquire, for whose will, dated 26 February 1499, see Sharpe, Reginald R., Calendar of Wills Proved and Enrolled in the Court of Husting, London, A.D. 1258 – A.D. 1688, (London: John C. Francis, 1890), p. 606 at:

<http://books.google.ca/books?id=ek4MAQAAMAAJ&pg=PA606&lpg=PA606>

William Marowe (d.1499) married firstly Constance Worsley, the daughter of Otwell Worsley (d. 24 March 1470) and Rose Trevor. For the will of her sister, Isabel (nee Worsley) Culpeper Leigh (d. 18 April 1527), see TNA PROB 11/22/332.

By Constance Worsley, William Marowe (d.1499) had two daughters:

(1) Anne Marowe, who according to Sharpe, supra, married a husband surnamed Duklyng. Quare ‘Ditchling’?

(2) Cecily Marowe (living 1527), who married Hugh Weldon. According to Davis, p. 340, citing Hasted, Edward, The History of Kent, 2nd edition, 1797, Vol. II, p. 411, Hugh Weldon ‘came of an ancient family of Northumberland and was attached to the court of Henry VII. He had four sons: (a) Hugh, ancestor of the Weldons of Shottesbrooke, co. Berks; (b) Edward, of Swanscombe, co. Kent, and Master of the Household of Henry VIII; (c) Thomas, of Cookham, co. Berks. and cofferer to Edward VI and Queen Elizabeth; (d) William, of Thornby, co. Northants’. Cecily (nee Marowe) Weldon is mentioned in the will, of her uncle, Thomas Marowe (d.1505), sergeant at law, and in the will of her aunt, Isabel (nee Worsley) Culpeper Lee, supra.

For Constance Worsley, see Davis, Walter Goodwin, The Ancestry of Mary Isaac, (Portland, Maine, 1955), pp. 338-9 at:

<https://babel.hathitrust.org/cgi/pt?id=wu.89062912860&view=1up&seq=436>

Constance; m. William Marowe of London, who m. secondly Joan Chadworth. Because of her early death less is known about Constance Worsley than her sisters, but there is adequate cumulative evidence of her existence and marriage. In his pedigree of the Gainsfords in his visitation of 1530, the herald Benolt carelessly gives to Anne (Worsley) Gainsford all of her sisters as children. Carelessness it must have been, for the Gainsford offspring, to whom their aunts were joined, were living when Benolt was gathering his information. Among these sisters was “Constancia ux[or] Marow.” Philipot, the Kentish antiquary, in a Worsley pedigree listed “custancia” among Otwell Worsley’s daughters but did not know her husband’s name although he knew that she had a daughter and heiress, whom he miscalls Elizabeth, who was the wife of Hugh Welden. The will of Thomas Marowe, made in 1505, mentions his niece Cecile Welden, daughter of his brother William, and Lady Leigh (Isabel Worsley) left a legacy to “my niece Weldon” in 1527. This would seem to add up to satisfactory proof.

William Marrow was a son of William Marowe, Mayor of London in 1455, and his wife Katherine Rich, daughter of Thomas Rich of London, mercer. The younger William’s brother Thomas married Isabel Brome, daughter of Nicholas Brome of Baddesley Clinton, co. Warwick.

William Marowe made his will Feb. 26, 1499, and it was proved on the following Oct. 30. He was to be buried at St. Botolph's without Bishopsgate under the tomb where his father lay, and he made many charitable bequests. He had a son and heir Thomas and two daughters, Elizabeth and Katherine, all minors, whose property was to be in the hands of his brother Thomas and his [the testator's] wife Joan, whose children they were. He had an older daughter, Anne Duklyng, whose marriage portion of £60 had not been fully paid, but no mention is made of his daughter Cecily Weldon. "My cousin Frowyk shall have my cup of Jesp" (sic), and his cousin Thomas Rich was an executor. He owned lands and houses in London, Middlesex and Essex and two London wharfs, "Marowe key" and "galyekey."

William Marowe (d.1499) married secondly Joan Chedworth, who after his death married William Fermor (d.1552), for whom see the History of Parliament entry at:

<http://www.histparl.ac.uk/volume/1509-1558/member/fermor-william-1480-1552>

See also the Fermor pedigree in Metcalfe, Walter C., ed., The Visitations of Northamptonshire Made in 1564 and 1618-19, (London: Mitchell and Hughes, 1887), p. 19 at:

<http://archive.org/stream/visitationsofnor00harvrich#page/18/mode/2up>

By Joan Chedworth, William Marowe (d.1499) had a son and two daughters:

(1) Thomas Marowe (d.1538). He is mentioned in the will, TNA PROB 11/14/514, of her uncle, Thomas Marowe (d.1505), sergeant at law, and in the will, TNA PROB 11/12/372, of John Crosby (d.1501), son of Sir John Crosby (d.1476). For Sir John Crosby (d.1476), see the Wikipedia article created by the author of this website at:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John\_Crosby\_\(died\_1476\))

(2) Elizabeth Marowe (living 1505). She is mentioned in the will of her uncle, Thomas Marowe (d.1505), sergeant at law, and in the will of John Crosby (d.1501).

(3) Katherine Marowe (living 1505). She is mentioned in the will of her uncle, Thomas Marowe (d.1505), sergeant at law.

* John Marowe, who died without issue.

* Thomas Marowe (d.1505), serjeant at law, who married Isabel Brome, the daughter of Nicholas Brome (d. 10 October 1516) of Baddesley Clinton, Warwickshire. See the will of Thomas Marowe, TNA PROB 11/14/514; Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. II, p. 381; and Dugdale, William, The Antiquities of Warwickshire, (London: Thomas Warren, 1656), pp. 710-12 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/antiquitiesofwar00dugd#page/710/mode/2up>

Modern spelling transcript copyright ©2013 Nina Green All Rights Reserved

<http://www.oxford-shakespeare.com/>

* Katherine Marowe (c.1459-c.1503), who married, circa 1487, Sir Robert Throckmorton (c.1451-1518), of Coughton Court, Warwickshire. See the will of Sir Robert Throckmorton, TNA PROB 11/20/25.

* Agnes Marowe, who died without issue.

* Joan Marowe (b.1470), who married, as his first wife, Sir William Clopton (1450 - 20 February 1531) of Long Melford, Suffolk, the son of John Clopton, esquire, by Alice Darcy, the daughter of Sir Robert Darcy. According to the Clopton pedigree in Metcalfe, Sir William Clopton and Joan Marowe had three sons and three daughters:

(1) John Clopton (d. 21 October 1541), esquire, who married Elizabeth Roydon.

(2) William Clopton (d. 26 October 1537), esquire, who married Elizabeth Saye, the daughter and coheir of Thomas Saye, esquire, of Liston Hall, Essex. See the pedigree of Clopton of Liston in Muskett, Joseph James, ed., Evidences of the Winthrops of Groton co. Suffolk, England, (Privately printed, 1894-1896), p. 145 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=7dYKAAAAYAAJ&pg=PA145>

For the will of his grandson, William Clopton (d. 25 October 1612) of Liston, who married Anne Barnardiston, the daughter of Sir Thomas Barnardison by Mary Walsingham, see Muskett, supra, p. 140.

(3) Robert Clopton, a priest.

(4) Elizabeth Clopton, who married Sir Geoffrey Gates (d.1526) of High Easter, Essex. See the will of Geoffrey Gates, servant of John de Vere (1442-1513), 13th Earl of Oxford, son of Sir Geoffrey Gates (d.1526) by his wife, Elizabeth Clopton, TNA PROB 11/37/210.

(5) Anne Clopton, who married Richard Poley of Boxted, Suffolk

(6) (daughter) Clopton, who married a husband surnamed Austyn.

See Metcalfe, Walter C., ed., The Visitations of Suffolk, (Exeter: William Pollard, 1882), p. 16 at:

<http://books.google.ca/books?id=EycAAAAAQAAJ&pg=PA16>

See also Howard, Joseph Jackson, ed., The Visitation of Suffolke, Vol. I, (Lowestoft: Samuel Tymms, 1866), p. 124 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=ExI2AQAAMAAJ&pg=PA124>

It appears Joan Marowe and Sir William Clopton had several children in addition to those mentioned in Metcalfe, including a daughter:

-Dorothy Clopton, who, in her will, proved 26 September 1508, TNA PROB 11/16/117, mentions four sisters, 'my sister Poley', 'my sister Gates', 'my sister, Anne Darcy', and 'my sister, Katherine', and five brothers, John, William, Robert, Francis and Richard Clopton. For the will of Dorothy Clopton, see Howard, supra, p. 44 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=ExI2AQAAMAAJ&pg=PA44>.

After the death of Joan Marowe, Sir William Clopton is said to have married secondly, about 1489, Katherine Hopton. See 'The Clopton Chronicles' at:

<http://homepages.rootsweb.com/~clopton/peche.htm>

Sir William Clopton married thirdly, about 1490, Thomasine Knyvet (c.1475-1538), the daughter of Thomas Knyvet (d.1479), esquire, and Elizabeth Lunsford (d. 4 July 1471), daughter of William Lunsford, esquire, by Thomasine Barrington, daughter and heiress of John Barrington. Thomasine Knyvet had a sister, Margaret Knyvet, who married John Roydon, and a brother, Edward Knyvet (d. 4 February 1500), who had an only daughter, Elizabeth Knyvet (d. 4 February 1508), who married Sir John Raynsford. See TNA C 1/198/51; the will, dated 14 September 1559, of Sir John Raynsford, TNA PROB 11/42B/484; and the History of Parliament entry for Sir John Raynsford at:

http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1509-1558/member/raynsford-\(rainforth\)-sir-john-1482-1559-sir-john-1482-1559)

See also Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. II, pp. 509-10, and Muskett, supra, p. 144 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=7dYKAAAAYAAJ&pg=PA144>

Thomasine, dau. of Sir Thos. Knevett of Stanway in Essex; sister and ultimately coheir of Edward Knevett, Esq.; aunt and coheir (with her two nieces, Elizabeth, wife of John Clopton of Kentwell, and Katherine Roydon) to Elizabeth Rainsford, wife of John Rainsford, Esq., her brother's daughter; as appears by the Inq. p. m. of the said Elizabeth Rainsford, 24 H. 7, from whom she inherited the Manor of Castelyns in Groton. She was then aged 40 years and upwards. See also Knevett pedigree Harl. MS. 380, fo. 128.

See also Copinger, W.A., The Manors of Suffolk, (London: T. Fisher Unwin, 1905), pp. 113-15 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/manorsofsuffolkn01copiuoft#page/114/mode/2up>

See also Copinger, supra, pp. 243-4 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/manorsofsuffolkn01copiuoft#page/242/mode/2up>

See also 'Descendants of John Knyvett' at:

<http://www.genealogy.com/ftm/l/e/w/Tamsin-N-Lewis/GENE3-0006.html>

See also the Roydon pedigree in Roydon, Ernest Bland, Three Roydon Families, (Edinburgh: R. & R. Clark, Ltd., 1924), between pp, 32-2-3 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/threeroydonfamil00royd#page/n61/mode/2up>

By Thomasine Knyvet Sir William Clopton is said to have had three sons:

-John Clopton, about whom nothing further is known.

-Francis Clopton, who married Bridget Crane, daughter of Robert Crane (c.1508 - d. 12 September 1591) of Chilton, Suffolk. Robert Crane's younger brother, Anthony Crane (d.1583), was the first husband of 'Mistress Crane', at whose manor of East Molesey across the Thames from Hampton Court Palace the first of the Marprelate tracts was printed on a secret press by Robert Waldegrave in October 1588. See the will of Anthony Crane, TNA PROB 11/65/507, and Appleton, William S., Memorials of the Cranes of Chilton, (Cambridge: John Wilson and Son, 1868), pp. 60-1 at:

https://books.google.ca/books?id=p\_8HAAAAQAAJ&pg=PA60

See also the will of Francis Clopton (d.1559), TNA PROB 11/42B/359, and Howard, supra, pp. 54-7 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=ExI2AQAAMAAJ&pg=PA54>

-Richard Clopton, whose daughter, Mary Clopton (d.1585) married Sir William Cordell (1522-1581), one of the trustees appointed in Oxford's 1575 indenture (ERO D/DRg2/25). The ODNB describes Sir William Cordell's father as 'John Cordell, originally from Edmonton, who had become the principal servant to Sir William Clopton (d.1531)' and says that '[Sir William Cordell] was probably brought up in Clopton's household'

For Sir William Clopton's third marriage, see also Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. I, pp. 520-1.

For the will of Sir William Clopton, dated 14 October 1530, see ERO D/DRg 1/95.

In his will Sir William Clopton requests burial in the parish church of Long Melford 'nigh unto the places whereas Joan and Dame Katherine, late my wives, lieth buried', and mentions his father, John Clopton, deceased; his third wife, Dame Thomasine; his eldest son and heir, John Clopton; his younger sons, Francis Clopton and Richard Clopton; and his daughter, Anne Poley. See Howard, supra, pp. 47-51 and 121 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=ExI2AQAAMAAJ&pg=PA47>

OTHER PERSONS MENTIONED IN THE WILL

In the will below, the testator mentions a married cousin, Ellen Otesdale.

TESTATOR'S PROPERTY

For the testator's property called Marowe's Key, see:

'Galley Quay', Survey of London: volume 15: All Hallows, Barking-by-the-Tower, pt II (1934), pp. 44-49. URL: <http://www.british-history.ac.uk/report.aspx?compid=74968>:

A very full and interesting account of the Marowe family at this time is given by Miss B. H. Putnam in her introduction to the important treatise De Pace Terre et Ecclesie et Conseruacione Eiusdem of Thomas Marowe, serjeant-at-law. William Marowe (Mayor, 1455-6) married, as his second wife, Katherine, daughter of Richard Ryche, mercer, and died possessed of much property in 1465. His children were William, who married Joan, daughter of Alderman William Chedworth; Thomas, the lawyer; Johanna, who married William Clopton of Kentwell Hall, Long Melford; Katherine, wife of Sir Robert Throckmorton; and John and Agnes, who died early.

William Marowe, the son, was in possession of the "Great Place and a wharf called Galley Key" and "the Maydenhede" in 1488, and at his death in 1499 bequeathed them to his wife Joan for life, and left Marowe New Quay to his brother Thomas, the lawyer, whom he made guardian of his son, also named Thomas. The latter married successively daughters of Baldwin Douse of Balsall and Robert Wigston of Wolston, and died in 1538. In the Inquisitio Post Mortem on the property of the latter, in 1539, his son and heir is named Thomas, who died in 1561 and left a son Samuel, the progenitor of the Warwickshire Marowes.

For Galley Key, see also:

http://mapoflondon.uvic.ca/map.htm?section=D7#map\_section.

For the Marowe family, see also:

Putnam, Bertha Haven, 'Early Treatises on the Practice of Justices of the Peace in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries', Oxford Studies in Social and Legal History, Vol. VII (Oxford: Clarendon Press, 1924).

RM: Test{amentu}m Will{el}mi Marwe

[f. 67r] In the name of God, Amen. I, William Marowe, citizen and grocer and alderman of the City of London, whole of mind and in good memory being, the 8th day of the month of October the year of Our Lord God 1464 and the 4th year of the reign of King Edward the Fourth, make and ordain my present testament of my last will in the manner that followeth:

First I bequeath and commend my soul to Almighty God, my Creator, to the Blessed Mary Virgin, his Mother, and to all holy saints, and my body to be buried in the church of Saint Botolph without Bishopsgate of London between the high altar of the same church and the altar of the chapel by me there late construct(?) and edified;

Item, I bequeath to the parson of the same church to be helping [f. 67v] and well-willing in such things as belongen to my said sepulture 40s;

Item, to the works and reparation of the same church 5 marks;

Item, I bequeath to the high altar of the church of Saint Mary Hill of London for tithes and offerings forgotten 5 marks;

Item, I bequeath to the works of the same church of Saint Mary Hill 40s;

Item, I will that th' expenses funeraries about my burying to be done be done in mean wise and not too oversumptuously forthwith anon after my decease, with 12 torches and 4 tapers, withouten any month mind making but if it be in privy Masses and distribution among poor people, and the said torches be given, that is to say, 6 torches to the said church of Saint Botolph without Bishopsgate, 2 torches to the church of Chelmsford, 2 torches to the church of Stepney, and 2 torches to the said church of Saint Mary Hill for to serve in the same churches in divine service as long as they will dure;

Item, I bequeath to be distributed to poor people at my burying £10;

Item, I bequeath to be distributed to poor people in the counties of Essex and Kent £40;

Item, I will that I have a priest convenable and honest for to sing divine services for my soul and for the souls of my father and mother and Isabel, sometime my wife, and for my wife that now is, and for the souls of all them that I am bound to, and all Christian souls in the said church of Saint Botolph without Bishopsgate at [+the] altar of the new chapel there by me ordained by the term of 30 years next following after my decease abovesaid, to the finding of which priest I bequeath £215 sterlings for to remain safely to be kept unto the Fellowship of my craft of Grocers, they to find the said priest withal during the said years, paying yearly to the said priest 10 marks and to the Master and 2 Wardens for the time being of the same craft yearly 10s, that is to say, to every of them 3s 4d, the same Master and Wardens to oversee the said priest so duly and truly to be found and to do his divine service during the said years, and I will that the same priest be ready at all times of divine service to help in(?) the choir of the said church and otherwise as a priest should do, and when and as oft as it shall hap the said service to be void by what casualty that it be, then I will that the said Master and Wardens of the said craft for the time being choose and put in another priest convenable and honest for to sing divine service in the manner abovesaid, and so to continue yearly during the said term of 30 years;

---

Item, I bequeath to the 4 Orders of Friars of London, that is to say, Friar Minors, Friar Preachers, Carmes and Friar Augustines, to every one of them 20s, and to the house of the Crutched Friars of London 10s;

Item, I bequeath to the Prior and Convent of Dunmow in Essex 40s;

Item, I bequeath to the Prior and Convent of Saint Mary Hospital without Bishopsgate of London 40s;

Item, to the Hospital of Bethlehem without the said Bishopsgate of London 40s;

Item, to every lazar-house within 15 miles about London 6s 8d;

Item, I bequeath to the prison-houses of Newgate and of the King's Bench for to be delivered and disposed among the prisoners in victual, that is to say, in every house 40s;

Item, in like wise among the prisoners of Ludgate 26s 8d;

Item, in like wise among the prisoners of the Marshalsea 20s;

Item, in like wise among the prisoners of Fleet 20s;

Item, in like wise among the prisoners convict of Westminster 20s;

Item, I bequeath to every of the priests and clerks of the foresaid churches of Saint Mary Hill and of Saint Botolph without Bishopsgate for to say and sing by a month after my decease placebo and dirge and Masses of Requiem and to pray for my soul 13s 4d;

Item, I bequeath to the Prioress and Convent of Kylborne 40s;

Item, I bequeath to the Vicary [=Vicar] of Stepney 6s 8d;

Item, I bequeath to the works of the church of Stepney 20s;

Item, I bequeath for to be distributed to the poor people of the same parish 20s;

Item, I bequeath to William, John and Thomas, my sons, that is to say, to every of them four hundred pounds sterlings for to be delivered to them when they come to their lawful age;

Item, I bequeath to Joan, Katherine and Agnes, my daughters, to [sic] is to say, to every of them 500 marks sterlings for to be delivered to them when it happeth them to be married;

And I will that the said money to my said sons and daughters bequeathen be in sure and safe keeping by sufficient surety thereof to be found in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London after usage and custom of the same City, my said sons and daughters truly thereof to be answered at their lawful age and marriage abovesaid;

And if it hap any of my said children to die afore the said age and marriage, then I will that the part of such child or children so dying remain to the other of them overliving, and if all the said children die or time they come to the said age and marriage, then I will all the said money to the said children bequeathen be distributed and disposed in alms-deeds for the health of my soul and of the souls abovesaid by mine executors to poor householders, as well within the City of London as without, and in other charitable works most to the pleasing of God;

Item, I bequeath to Agnes, my sister, £40 sterlings to her own use, and 10 marks sterlings to bestow in alms-deeds for my soul, and a plain gilt cup covered, and a salt-cellar of silver, and 6 spoons of silver;

Item, I bequeath to Elene Otesdale, my cousin, £5, and to every of her daughters to her marriage 40s;

Item, I bequeath to Anneys Bette 6 marks, to be delivered to her at times as it needeth to her sustentation by Katherine, my wife;

Item, I bequeath to every of the children of the said Agnes Bette to her marriage 40s;

Item, I bequeath to Margaret Langley, my servant, 5 marks;

Item, to Elizabeth Iyon, my servant, 4 marks;

Item, to [f. 68r] John Smert, my servant, £6 13s 4d;

Item, to William, my cook, 26s 8d;

Item, to [-Item, to] John Elde, my servant, 20s;

Item, I bequeath to every of mine other servants that been prentices and have been prentices being with me at time of my decease 4 marks;

---

Item, to Laurence of Lee 10s;

Item, to Thomas Spencer, beadle, 20s;

Item, to Pety Iohane(?), widow, 40s, and I pardon her the debt that her husband ought me;

Item, I bequeath to Thomas Marwe [=Marowe], priest, to pray for my soul 40s;

Item, to John Marwe [=Marowe], his brother, dwelling at Bristowe [=Bristol], 40s;

Item, to Richard, his brother, dwelling in Dunstable, 40s;

Item, to Thomas Marwe [=Marowe], his brother, 40s;

Item, I bequeath to Sir John Colyns, priest, 5 marks;

Item, I bequeath to Thomas Prowde of Canterbury 40s;

Item, to Gaywode of Maldon 40s;

Item, I bequeath to Thomas, the son of William Essex, for to be delivered to him when he cometh to lawful age 10 marks;

Item, I bequeath to Margery and Elizabeth, daughters of the said William Essex, that is to say, every of hem [=them] 10 marks to be delivered at time of her [=their] marriages;

And if the said Thomas decease afore his said lawful age, then the said 10 marks to him bequeathen remain to be disposed in alms-deeds for the health of my soul by mine executors;

And if the said Margery and Elizabeth die or they been married, then the said money to them bequeathen remain to be disposed by mine executors in the manner abovesaid;

Item, I remit and release to Thomas Morecok of Ingatestone half the debt that he oweth me, so that he pay the other half of the same debt to mine executors;

Item, I bequeath to Margery Pepir, widow, 10s;

Item, to John Page, late mine apprentice, 26s 8d;

Item, to Lawrence Acoy{n(?), late mine apprentice, 13s 4d;

Item, I bequeath to William Spencer of Popeler [=Poplar?] 13s 4d;

Item to Thomas Grove, late my servant, 26s 8d;

---

Item, to John Hervy, late my prentice, 26s 8d;

Item, to William Nasying of Creye 20s;

Item, to all the children of my kindred of Brettes, that is to say, to every of them 6s 8d;

Item, I bequeath to Margaret Smyth of Colchester 20s;

Item, to Sir Edward Rykman, priest, to pray for my soul 20s;

Item, to Sir Robert Carvile, priest, 13s 4d;

Item, to Sir John Newbold, priest, 10s;

Item, to Sir Robert, my priest, 20s;

Item, I bequeath to Joan Colvile, otherwise called Oxenford, 20s;

Item, I bequeath to Anneys Ramsey, late my servant, of Deptford 13s 4d;

Item, to Joan Rouse, late my servant, 13s 4d;

Item I bequeath to the Fellowship of my craft of Grocers, to their reparations of their tenements £5;

Item, I release and forgive unto the Masters of the Bridge of London all the debt that they owe me, and over that I bequeath to them to the reparation of the same bridge 40s;

Item, I bequeath to Katherine, my wife, as for her part of all my movable goods to her belonging, a thousand pound sterlings and silver plate to the value of a 100 marks of such sorts and fashion as she will chose, and all mine household except silver vessel and silver plate, money and merchandises, and all the remnant of the said my present testament, except thereof I will that every of my said sons have a couple of silver cups, a pottle pot of silver, a dozen of silver spoons, and 2 salt-cellars of silver, one covered, and that every of the said daughters have 2 silver cups, a dozen of silver spoons, and 2 salt-cellars of silver, one covered, and that the eldest of my said sons choose first his part, and so one after another as they been of age, and in semblable wise my said daughters to do the same, and except also a plain gilt cup covered, a salt-cellar and 6 spoons of silver to Anneys, my sister, bequeathen as it is abovesaid;

And I bequeath to the said Katherine, my wife, all my state and terms coming of and in all the tenement back-house with th' appurtenances that I hold term of years in Saint Mary Hill Lane in the foresaid parish of Saint Mary Hill, in the which that Thomas Fuller, baker, dwelleth, to have and to hold to the same Katherine and her assigns during the term of years thereof coming after my decease if she live so long;

And if it hap the said Katherine to die or time the said years been finished and fulfilled, then I will that the said state and terms coming after the decease of the said Katherine remain to William, John and Thomas, my sons, to have and hold to hem [=them?] and her [=their?] assigns during the terms then coming of the said tenement if they live so long;

And if it hap my said sons to die or time the said terms be ended, then I will that the said state and terms coming after the decease of my said sons remain to Joan, Katherine and Anneys, my daughters, and their executors and assigns during the said years then coming of the said tenement backhouse;

Item, I bequeath to every of mine executors underwritten £10;

Item, to Master Edward Story, clerk [f. 68v] their overseer, £5;

The residue of all my goods and chattels and debts whatsoever they be and wheresoever they be found, after the debts that I owe being paid, my burying done, and the fulfilling of this my present testament, I will to be distributed, done and disposed by mine executors in alms-deeds for the health of my soul and of the souls abovesaid, as in singing of Masses, dealing amongst poor people, marriage of poor maidens, amending of highways, acquitting of prisoners of debt out of prison, relieving of poor churches, and other charitable works of pity and mercy, most specially to the poor people, as it shall be thought best to please God and most health to the said souls;

And of this testament I make and ordain my executors Thomas Urswyk, Recorder of London, William Essex of London, gentleman, and John Styward of London, chandler, and their overseers I make and ordain the foresaid Edward Story, Sir John Colyns and John Smart, justly and truly to oversee to be executed all things concerning this my present testament;

Given at London the day and year abovesaid, then being present Master Edward Story, clerk, John Thetford, tailor, Robert Scarlett, barber, John of Woode, grocer, and Walter Culpett, scrivener, witnesses thereto called and required.

Sequitur vltima voluntas Willielmi Marwe in secundo quaterno proximo

Probatum fuit suprascriptum testamentum apud Lameth xv die Maij Anno domini Mcccclxvto ac approbatum &c Et commissaria fuit administratione omnium et singulorum bonorum dicti defuncti Thome Vrsewyk Willielmo Essex & Iohanni Styward executoribus &c de bene administratione &c ac de pleno & fideli inuenta bonorum &c citra festum sancti Michaelis Archangelis proximum futurum &c ac de plano composito &c

---

[=The above-written testament was proved at Lambeth on the 15 day of May in the year of the Lord 1565, and probated etc., and administration was granted of all and singular the goods of the said deceased to Thomas Urswyck, William Essex & John Styward, executors etc., [+sworn] to well administer etc., and [+to exhibit] a full & faithful inventory of the goods etc. before the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel next to come etc., and also [+to render] a plain account etc.]