

SUMMARY: The undated document below lists the old fines and rents for certain of Oxford's tenements in Cornwall which were currently not leased, together with the new fines being offered for the leases. In feudal law, a fine was a fee (as distinguished from the rent) paid by the tenant or vassal to the landlord on some alteration of the tenancy, as on the transfer or alienation of the tenant-right, etc. (OED). The scribe's sum for the new fines offered for the leases appears to be out by 5s 10d, i.e. it should be £267 5s 10d. The document probably dates from 1563.

The note of the rents of such tenements as are void in Cornwall, with the fines there offered for the same.
