

SUMMARY: The document below is the copy on the Close Rolls of the recognizance in the amount of £2500 acknowledged by Nicholas Brend to Sir Mathew Browne and John Collett on 8 October 1601 in connection with an indenture dated 7 October 1601 for the payment of Nicholas Brend's debts. For the indenture, which mentions Richard Burbage and William Shakespeare of Stratford upon Avon as lessees of the ground on which the Globe was built, see TNA C 54/1722, mm. 5-7.

Nicholas Brend of West Molesey in the county of Surrey, esquire, having appeared personally before the Lady Queen in her Chancery, acknowledged himself to owe to Mathew Browne of the Castle of West Betchworth in the said county of Surrey, knight, & John Collett, citizen & Merchant-Taylor of London, two thousand & five hundred pounds of good & lawful money of England, to be paid to the same Mathew Browne & John Collett or either of them, or either of their designated attorney, executors or administrators;

And if he shall not have done [+so], the forenamed Nicholas wills & grants for himself, his heirs, executors & administrators by these presents that then the said sum of two thousand & five hundred pounds be levied & recovered of the manors, messuages, lands, tenements & hereditaments, goods, chattels & possessions of the same Nicholas Brend, his heirs, executors & administrators, wheresoever they are or shall be found, to the sole & proper use & behoof of the forenamed Mathew Browne & John Collett, their executors, administrators & assigns, forever;

Witness the said Lady Queen at Westminster on the eighth day of October in the forty-third year of the reign of our said Lady Elizabeth by the grace of God of England, France & Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith etc., 1601.

The condition of this recognizance is such that if th' above-bounden Nicholas Brend, his heirs, executors and administrators and every of them, do well, justly and truly observe, perform, fulfil and keep all and every the covenants, grants, articles, conditions and agreements which on his and their or any of their parts and behalves are or ought to be observed, performed, fulfilled and kept mentioned, contained and specified in one indenture of bargain and sale or deed indented bearing date the seventh day of this present month of October and year above-written made between the said Nicholas Brend on thone party and the above-named Sir Mathew Browne and John Collett on thother party, and that in and by all things according to the tenor, purport and true meaning of the same indenture or deed indented, that then this present recognizance shall be utterly void and of none effect, or else it to stand and abide in full force, strength and virtue.
