

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 19 November 1509 and proved 29 November 1509, of Roger North, whose granddaughter, Jane Wilkinson (d.1571), was the wife of Michael Lok (c.1532–1620x22), who persuaded Oxford to invest heavily in Martin Frobisher's second expedition in search of a route to Cathay.

For the connections of the testator's family to Oxford, to the Blackfriars, and to the anonymous play, Arden of Faversham, see the will of the testator's son, Edward North, 1st Baron North, TNA PROB 11/48/64.

Although Edward North's father Roger, a younger son, was settled in London at the time of his death, he had been born in Nottinghamshire where the less enterprising members of his family remained. Roger North made no mention of his three young children in the will which he made on 19 Nov. 1509 . . . .

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The testator married Christian Warcup, the daughter of Richard Warcup of Sinnington, Yorkshire, by whom he is said to have had three children:

* Edward North, 1st Baron North, for whose will see TNA PROB 11/48/64.

* Alice North, who is said to have married Thomas Burnet, esquire, Auditor of the Exchequer. See Burke, supra, and The Peerage of England, Scotland and Ireland, Vol. I, (London: W. Owen, 1790), p. 287 at:

* Joan North (d.1556), who was in the household of Anne Boleyn as a silkwoman from 1533-1535. She became an exile in the reign of Queen Mary, and died at Frankfurt in 1556 at the house of her cousin, Cuthbert Warcup, a London mercer.

From her will, TNA PROB 11/42B/326:

Also I do remit and clearly forgive the Lord North, my brother, so much as remaineth yet unpaid of that bill of two hundred pounds remaining in th' hands and custody of my cousin, William Holland.

She married the London mercer, William Wilkinson (1481-1543), by whom she had three daughters, Christian Wilkinson and Frances Wilkinson, both of whom married, but predeceased her, and Jane Wilkinson (d.1571). Jane Wilkinson married, as his first wife, Michael Lok (c.1532–1620x22), who persuaded Oxford to invest heavily in Martin Frobisher's second expedition in search of a route to Cathay. See the ODNB entry for Michael Lok; TNA SP 12/126/34, ff. 65-6; and TNA SP 12/130/19, f. 138.

Joan North and her husband were bequeathed rings in the will, TNA PROB 11/27/46, of the London mercer, Thomas Pakington (d.1536):

Item, I bequeath to every one of these hereafter following a ring, price 40s, that is to say, to . . . Mrs Wilkinson, Mrs Hall, Mr Wilkinson. . . .
