

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 13 August 1552 and proved 26 April 1553, of Sir Anthony Wingfield (d. 15 August 1552) of Letheringham, Suffolk, brother-in-law of John de Vere (1499-1527), 14th Earl of Oxford.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

For the testator's family background, see the detailed Wingfield pedigree at:

The testator was the grandson of Sir John Wingfield (1428 - 10 May 1481) and Elizabeth Fitz Lewes. For the will of the testator's grandmother, Elizabeth Fitz Lewes Wingfield, dated 14 July 1497 and proved 22 December 1500, see Norfolk Record Office NCC Will Register CAGE 135.

The testator was the eldest son and heir of Sir John Wingfield (d.1509) and Anne Tuchet (living 15 July 1480), the daughter of John Tuchet (d. 26 September 1490), 6th Baron Audley, by Anne Echingham, daughter of Sir Thomas Echingham. Through his parents, the testator was a descendant of King Edward I of England and Eleanor of Castile. See Richardson, Douglas, Plantagenet Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. I, p. 152; Vol. II, p. 201-2; Vol. III, p. 367.

The testator had two brothers and three sisters:

-Edmund Wingfield, second son.

-Henry or Hugh Wingfield (living 1578). According to Corder, he was 'Henry or Hugh'; in the will below, he is referred to as Henry:

Also I will that my brother, Henry Wingfield, shall have the keeping of the park at Letheringham as I appointed him if he refuse the comptrollership of Calais, which I no ways would have him to do.

-Elizabeth Wingfield, who in 1510 married Henry Noone, esquire, of Martlesham and of Shelfhanger, Norfolk.

-Anne Wingfield, who married Lewis Winwood, gentleman.

-Margaret Wingfield (d. 29 October 1557), who married Thomas Seckford, esquire, and died at the age of 64.

For the testator's brothers and sisters, see Corder, Joan, ed., The Visitation of Suffolk, 1561, Vol. 2, (London: Harleian Society, 1984), p. 219.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The testator married Elizabeth Vere (d.1557), eldest daughter of Sir George Vere (died c.1503) and sister of John de Vere (1499-1527), 14th Earl of Oxford. For the will of the testator's father-in-law, Sir George Vere, see TNA PROB 11/13/444. For the will of the testator's sister-in-law, Ursula Vere Windsor Knightly, see TNA PROB 11/42A/10.

For the testator's eight sons and seven daughters, see the will of his wife, Elizabeth Vere, TNA PROB 11/42B/640, and Corder, Joan, ed., The Visitation of Suffolk, 1561, Vol. 2, (London: Harleian Society, 1984), pp. 211-221.

Of the testator's children, only four sons (Robert, Anthony, Henry and Richard) and two daughters (Margaret, and a married 'daughter Naunton') are mentioned in the will below.

For details of the testator's career as a soldier and administrator, see the entry in the ODNB.

The testator was succeeded by his third son, Sir Robert Wingfield (d. 19 March 1596/7), whose first wife was Cecily Wentworth (d. 22 August 1573), the daughter of Thomas Wentworth (1501–1551), 1st Baron Wentworth. The testator requests that his son-in-law, Thomas Wentworth (1525–1584), 2nd Baron Wentworth, act as supervisor of his will. For the will of the testator's son, Sir Robert Wingfield (d. 19 March 1596/7), see TNA PROB 11/87/510.

Another of the testator's sons, Richard Wingfield, married Mary Hardwick, the sister of Elizabeth (nee Hardwick) Talbot (1527-1608), Countess of Shrewsbury, popularly known as 'Bess of Hardwick'. For the will of the testator's son, Richard Wingfield, see TNA PROB 11/78/67.

The testator is said to have died 15 August 1552 at the house of his fellow Privy Councillor, Sir John Gates (1504–1553).

RM: Test{amentu}m Anthonij Wingfeld Milit{is}

In dei nomine Amen. The will of me, Sir Anthony Wingfield, knight, the 13th day of August in the year of Our Lord God a thousand five hundred fifty and two:

First I bequeath my soul to Almighty God, by whose merits and passion I trust to be saved, and my body to the earth;

I do ordain and make my executors my wife and Robert Wingfield, my son, and I do heartily desire my Lord Wentworth to be supervisor of the same to see this my last will and testament to be performed;

I do give to my son, Anthony, Philpott and his pension if he be by the King's Majesty granted to me, and if he have not Philpott, I do give him twenty marks by year;

And I do give to my son, Henry, twenty marks by year;

And I do give to my son, Richard Wingfield, ten pounds by year;

And I do give to my daughter, Margaret, four hundred marks [=£266 13s 4d] to her marriage;

Also I do give during her life to my daughter Naunton five marks [=£3 6s 8d] by year;

Also I will that my brother, Henry Wingfield, shall have the keeping of the park at Letheringham as I appointed him if he refuse the comptrollership of Calais, which I no ways would have him to do;

Also I do give to John Audley, my servant, five pounds of money;

To Woodhouse, Flye(?), Crost{es}(?) and Wheler & Crykdort(?) and to every of them five marks;

And where I have left any of my servants unrewarded, I do desire my executors to reward them upon their discretion;

And if there be any doubt in this my last will and testament, I will that my Lord Wentworth see it reformed as shall please him, and cause it to be written and ordered according to the law;

And that this is my last will and testament these be witness: Hugh Willoughby, Erasmus Henyingham, and John Audley.
