

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 1 February 1571 and proved 5 May 1571, of Anthony Waldegrave, a younger brother of George Waldegrave (c.1483-1528) of Smallbridge in Bures St Mary, Suffolk. George Waldegrave's grandson, Sir William Waldegrave (d.1613), was a co-guarantor, with Oxford's first cousin, John Darcy (d.1581), 2nd Lord Darcy of Chiche, of Oxford's debt to the Court of Wards. In 1572, Sir William Waldegrave (d.1613) and Lord Darcy jointly entered into guarantees amounting to £5000 for Oxford's debt to the Court of Wards (see TNA C 2/Eliz/T6/48). For further information on Sir William Waldegrave (d.1613) see the will of his father, Sir William Waldegrave (1507?-1554), TNA PROB 11/37/466.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

The testator was the son of Sir William Waldegrave (c.1465 - 30 June 1527) and Margery Wentworth. For the will of Sir William Waldegrave, see TNA PROB 11/22/294. For the will of the testator's mother, Margery Wentworth Waldegrave, see TNA PROB 11/28/96.

As noted above, the testator was a younger brother of George Waldegrave (c.1483-1528), esquire, of Smallbridge in Bures St. Mary, who married Anne Drury (d. 8 June 1572), the daughter of Sir Robert Drury of Hawstead, Suffolk by Anne Calthorpe, the daughter of Sir William Calthorpe (30 January 1410 - 15 November 1494) of Burnham Thorpe, Norfolk. See the will of George Waldegrave, TNA PROB 11/22/577. See also the ODNB entry for Sir Robert Drury, and his will, TNA PROB 11/25/467. For Sir William Calthorpe see Plantagenet Ancestry, supra, Vol. 1, p. 169, and his will, TNA PROB 11/10/408. See also the will, dated 8 November 1554 and proved 30 October 1555, of Sir William Waldegrave (d. 12 December 1554), TNA PROB 11/37/466.

For the testator's family background, see the will of his brother, George Waldegrave, TNA PROB 11/22/577; Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. I, p. 354, and Vol. IV, p. 284; and 'The Descendants of William deTendering, Knt., of Tendering Hall & His Wife Dame Katherine Mylde' at:

The testator is mentioned in the 1544 will of his uncle, Edward Waldegrave (d.1545?), esquire, of the Friars, Sudbury, TNA PROB 11/30/620.

MARRIAGES AND CHILDREN

The testator married, before 1512, Elizabeth Grey (b.1492?, d. before 1552), daughter of Ralph Grey (d. 1 November 1492), esquire, of Brent Pelham, Hertfordshire, Baron of the Exchequer. According to Richardson, Douglas, Plantagenet Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. I, p. 424, Elizabeth Grey was co-heiress to her father. However in the inquisition post mortem taken 23 November 1497 concerning the manor of Chamberleyns in Brent Pelham, she is described as his daughter and next heir, aged five years and more, and no mention is made of any other heir. See Calendar of Inquisitions Post Mortem, Vol. II, (London: Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 1915, pp. 53-4, 67 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/calendarofinquis02grea#page/52/mode/2up>

A lawsuit in Chancery, TNA C 1/563/31, brought at some date between 1518 and 1529, states that the testator's wife, Elizabeth Grey, was the daughter of Ralph Grey and Anne Barnardiston, daughter of Sir Thomas Barnardiston, and that after the death of Ralph Grey, Anne Barnardiston Grey married John Russell. See the lawsuit brought by John Russell of the Fryth in Surrey [by Byfleet?], gentleman, and Anne, his wife, late the wife of Ralph Grey, esquire, and daughter of Sir Thomas Barnardiston, against Anthony Waldegrave, son of Sir William Waldegrave, and Elizabeth, his wife, daughter of the said Ralph and Anne, for recovery of the manors of Greys and Chamberleyns in Brent Pelham, 'they having been ousted by Edward Stafford, Duke of Buckingham'. In another lawsuit, TNA C 1/563/32, John Russell, esquire, of the Fryth in Surrey is described as 'brother and heir of Roger Russell', who may have been Roger Russell, citizen and salter of London (see TNA C 1/221/101). Elizabeth Grey's grandfather may have been Sir Thomas Barnardiston (d. 29 June 1503). See:

By Elizabeth Grey, the testator had four sons:

* William Waldegrave of Little Ilford, Essex, eldest son and heir, who predeceased his father. He was steward of the manor of Barking. He married Katherine Garnon(?). After his death his widow, Katherine, married John Brooke. See Metcalfe, supra, p. 220; Page, supra, p. 94; and Howard, Joseph Jackson, ed., Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica, Vol. II, (London: Hamilton, Adams, and Co., 1876), p. 288 at:

* Barnaby Waldegrave, who died without issue. See his will, TNA PROB 11/55/183, and 'Isaac Wyncoll', supra.

* Julian Waldegrave, who died without issue. He may have been the Julian Waldegrave who married a wife named Christian; see his will, TNA PROB 11/73/222; and 'Isaac Wyncoll', supra.

* Thomas Waldegrave (d.1611x12), esquire, referred to in the will below as 'my youngest son', who married firstly Elizabeth Gurdon, daughter of Robert Gurdon, esquire, of Waldingfield and Assington, Suffolk, by Rose Sexton, the daughter of Robert Sexton of Lavenham, Suffolk. By his first wife, Thomas Waldegrave had three sons and one daughter:

-Thomas Waldegrave (d.1640x2), esquire, of Ferrers (in Bures), Essex, who married Margaret Holmstead or Olmsted (died c.1639), the daughter and co-heiress of John Olmsted or Holmstead, gentleman, of Halstead Essex, by his wife, Palladia. It appears she was a descendant of John Olmsted or Holmstead, Master of Horse to Oxford's father, John de Vere (1516 – 3 August 1562), 16th Earl of Oxford. See Wright, Thomas, The History and Topography of the County of Essex, Vol. I, (London: George Virtue, 1836), pp. 463-5 at:

<https://books.google.ca/books?id=SgQVAAAAQAAJ&pg=PA463>

In 1556, [William Parr, Marquess of Northampton] purchased the reversion of these manors to him and his heirs for ever; and, four days afterwards, conveyed them to Sir William Waldegrave, of Smallbridge, in Suffolk: who sold the manor of Stansted to Arthur Breame, having previously sold the site of the mansion of Stanstead Hall, with the outbuildings and a great part of the land, to John Holmsted, master of the horse to the Earl of Oxford, at Hedingham.

-John Waldegrave.

-William Waldegrave.

-Elizabeth Waldegrave, who married Isaac Wincole.

Thomas Waldegrave (d.1611x12), married secondly, before 1599, Mary Badby.

See Plantagenet Ancestry, Vol. I, p. 424, supra. See also 'Isaac Wyncoll' supra.

The testator's first wife, Elizabeth Grey, predeceased him, and he subsequently remarried. In the will below he identifies his wife as the widow of John Gauge(?).

OTHER PERSONS MENTIONED IN THE WILL

For Anthony Payne, mentioned in the will below, father of John Payne, see Copinger, W.A., The Manors of Suffolk, Vol. 7 (Manchester: Taylor, Garnett, Evans & Co. Ltd., 1911), p. 84 at:

<https://archive.org/stream/cu31924092579600#page/n97/mode/2up>

For Oxford's bill of complaint against Richard Payne (d.1606), who was likely related to Anthony Payne, see TNA STAC 5/03/35.

In his will, Henry Payne (d.1568) of Nowton, brother of Anthony Payne, bequeathed to Sir Giles Alington 'my Chaucer written in vellum and illumined with gold', and to William Drury 'one nest of bowls double gilt with a cover all gilt and the arms of the Earl of Oxenford and my Lady, his wife, engraven in the top of the cover'. See the will of Henry Payne, TNA PROB 11/51/39. See also:

Note: The family surname is spelled 'Walgrave' throughout the PCC copy. However the spelling 'Waldegrave' has been used in the modern-spelling transcript below.

T{estamentum} Anthonij Walgrave

In the name of God, Amen. The first day of February and in the year of Our Lord 1570, I, Anthony Waldegrave of Bures Saint Mary in the county of Essex, esquire, thanks be to God being of whole mind and memory and perfect remembrance, and verily knowing that there is nothing more sure or more certain in this wretched world than death which every creature living must suffer and nothing more unsure or uncertain than the dreadful hour thereof, fully disposing and purposing myself by the grace, goodness and mercifulness of Jesus to be at all and every time and hour ready, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following:

First, I annul and revoke all other my wills and testaments ever before this day made or willed or declared, and every of them shall be of no strength nor effect;

And I give and bequeath my soul to Almighty God, my Maker and Redeemer;

And my body to be buried in the north chapel of the church of Bures aforesaid, which said burial I will shall be done within the space of 24 hours next after my decease if it so conveniently may be, which burial I will shall be kept and done in any wise without pomp or vainglory;

And I will at my said burial & month-day there be no common assembly of poor people nor common dole nor dinner to be kept, but certain money at my said burial and month-day to be distributed at their houses by my executor in manner and form following:

First, I give and bequeath to the poor people in Bures at my burial & month-day forty shillings;

Item, I give to the poor people of Little Horkesley 2s 8d;

Item, I give to the poor of Wormingford 2s;

Item, I give to the poor of Munte [=Mount Bures?] 20d;

Item, I give to the poor of Lamarsh 20d;

Item, I give to the poor of Alferston [=Alphamstone?, Alpheton?] 16d;

Item, to the poor of Assington 2s 8d;

Item, I give to the altar of Bures for my tithes negligently forgotten 2s;

Item, I give and bequeath to Barnaby Waldegrave, my son, one featherbed, one bolster, two pair of sheets, one finer and [f. 148r] one coarser, one pair of blankets, one coverlet and a tester over his head, one tablecloth of diaper, one towel of diaper, one chest & one pillow;

Item, I give to the same Barnaby £20 of lawful money of England;

Item, I give to Julyan Waldegrave, my son, £20 of lawful money of England;

Item, I give and bequeath to my 3 sons, Julyan, Thomas and Barnaby, either of them one of my gowns, and I will that Julyan shall choose first, Thomas next, and then Barnaby;

Item, I give to every one of my wife's children which she had by John Gauge(?) 5s of lawful money of England;

Item, I give to those 4 which shall carry me to church 8d apiece;

Item, I give to Silvester Blynd 6s 8d;

Item, I give and bequeath to Thomas Waldegrave, my youngest son, and to the heirs of his body begotten my manor of Ferrers alias Ferryers with all the lands, meadows, pastures, feedings, ponds, watermill, rents and woods and with all other the appurtenances as well copy as free thereto belonging lying in Bures or elsewhere;

Item, I give to the said Thomas and to the heirs of his body my tenement in Lamarsh with th' appurtenances called Carters, and also my tenement in Bures with th' appurtenances called Geddinges, and also my grove called Amorns grove, and all other my lands and tenements as well not named as named which be lying within the parishes of Bures, Alfreton [=Alphamstone?], Lamarsh, Pebmarsh, Twinstead, Munte [=Mount Bures?], Wormingford or any of the Cowlnes [=Colnes?] which be now in my hands or in the hands of any other, and if my said son, Thomas, do die without heirs of his body lawfully begotten, then I will the remainder of all the lands and tenements before expressed to be according to the last deed of estate that I did give to Anthony Payne to the use of me & the uses therein expressed, which deed beareth date the 26th day of August and in the 4th year [=1550] of the reign of King Edward the 6th;

Item, I will that after my death my son, Barnaby, shall have sufficient meat, drink, lodging and washing of my son, Thomas, during his life, or else to have £4 a year paid unto him by the said Thomas at two terms of the year, that is to say, th' Annunciation of

Our Lady and Saint Michael th' Archangel by even portions, and if the said rent be behind and unpaid in part or in all at any of the said feasts, then it shall be lawful for him to distrain in the manor of Ferrers and in every part and parcel thereof until he be of the same rent fully contented, satisfied and paid;

Item, I give and bequeath to my son, Barnaby, and to his heirs my house and land with th' appurtenances called the Tyled House lying in Brent Pelham or elsewhere which is now in the tenure and occupation of (blank) Pickeram;

Item, I will and give all the residue of my goods not bequeathed, as well movable as unmovable, my debts being paid (being truly proved) and my legacies and bequests being fulfilled, to be at the order, rule and disposition of Thomas Waldegrave, my son, which Thomas I ordain and make my sole executor;

Item, I will that if any of my children within named or any other to whom I have given any legacy or bequest by this my last will do vex or trouble my said executor for any gift or bequest in this my will given or bequeathed, contrary to the true intent & meaning of this my last will and testament, then I will the said party shall lose his part or portion that I have given him in this my will;

In witness whereof I, the said Anthony Waldegrave, to this my last will have set to my hand and seal in the presence of Christopher Bain(?), clerk, William Fisher, James Jermyn. By me, Richard Banckes. Anthony Waldegrave.
