

PRO WARD 8/13 Part 01 of 78 English*County of Essex

Honour or manor of Castle Hedingham, otherwise called Castle Heningham, with the appurtenances in the foresaid county, parcel of the foresaid lands.

Account of Robert, Lord Dudley, farmer of the foresaid lands for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: none, as appears in the foot of the account of the next preceding year.
Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid honour or manor of Castle Hedingham otherwise called Castle Heningham aforesaid with the appurtenances in the said county of Essex of the annual value of £8 15s 3-1/2d held of the Lady Queen in chief by knight service, of which certain honour or manor with the appurtenances the foresaid late Earl before his death was seised among other honours, castles, lordships, manors, lands, tenements and the rest of the hereditaments here after below specified, so in this county of Essex as in other several counties, in his demesne as of fee.

And the foresaid late Earl thus thereof being seised, a certain fine was levied of all the same honours, castles, manors, lands, & tenements & the rest of the hereditaments among other things before Edward Montague, knight, & his fellows, late justices of Edward, late King of England the Sixth, of his Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, between Edward, late Duke of Somerset, & a certain Michael Stanhope & Thomas Darcy, knights, & John Lucas, esquire, querents, & the foresaid late Earl, deforciant, as by the record thereof among the records of the said late King of his Court of Common Pleas aforesaid of Easter term in the second year [=1548] of his reign more fully appears of record, and that the same fine was thus levied to the uses & intentions specified & declared in certain indentures concerning a certain marriage thereafter to be had & solemnized between the Lord Henry, one of the sons of the foresaid late Duke of Somerset, & the Lady Katherine, one of the daughters of the foresaid late Earl, made between him, the late Duke, on the one part, & the same late Earl on the other part, bearing date the first day of February in the second year [=1 February 1548] of the reign of the late Lord King, which certain marriage never was had nor took effect between them, the Lord Henry & the Lady Katherine, nor between her, the Lady Katherine, nor any other son of the said late Duke.

And after by a certain Act of the Parliament held at Westminster by & upon prorogation the 23rd day of January in the fifth year [=23 January 1552] of the reign of the said late King & there continued and held until the 15 day of April in the 6th year [=15 April 1552] of the same late King concerning the annihilation & annulling of the foresaid indenture, the same indenture & all the uses specified & declared in it were made null, annihilate, & frustrate to all intents and purposes as if the same indenture had never been made.

And further on the same 23rd day of January by authority of the Parliament aforesaid it was provided, enacted, & established that the foresaid fine from the time of the levying of the same would be adjudicated, accounted, & reputed to the use of the said late Earl for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, and after his decease to the use of his elder male issue of the body of the same late Earl lawfully begotten & of the heirs males of the body of the same male issue lawfully begotten, and for lack of such issue to the use of the right heirs of the said late Earl forever, by virtue of which and by force of which certain Act of Parliament of the uses in possession to be transmuted, the same late Earl after the making of the said Act was seised of & in all the foresaid honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, & the rest of the premises with the appurtenances specified in the foresaid fine with several remainders further in manner & form as in the foresaid Act of Parliament are contained, viz., to the foresaid late Earl for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, and after his decease remainder thereof to his elder issue male lawfully issuing, remainder thereof for lack of such issue to the right heirs of the said late Earl forever.

And by authority of the foresaid Parliament it is further enacted & established that the foresaid late Earl by his last will & testament in writing sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand would have full power & authority by virtue of the foresaid Act of Parliament to assign, limit, & appoint to his lawful wife, him the late Earl surviving, for term of her natural life to & for her jointure the manors of Tilbury, Downham, Easton Hall, Netherhall in Gestingthorpe, Garnons in Tendring, Brownes tenement in Toppesfield in the county of Essex, the manors of Easton Maudit, Thorpe Malford, & Marston Trussell in the county of Northampton, the manor of Bilton in the county of Warwick, or all & so many of the same manors as it might have pleased the said late Earl to assign to any such wife, and that then after the decease of him, the late Earl, & after the date of the limitation, assignment, & appointment of the jointure which might have been made in writing sealed & subscribed as is aforesaid, the foresaid lawful wife of the foresaid late Earl, him the late Earl surviving, will have & hold, and might be able to have, hold, & enjoy during her life all the foresaid manors, lands, & tenements comprised in the said proviso or so many of the same as will be comprised in any such last will in writing sealed & subscribed by the foresaid late Earl as is aforesaid, and that the same jointure would be a full recompense & satisfaction of the whole jointure & dowry which the said lawful wife of the said then Earl, him surviving, is able or might be able to claim, ask, or demand after the death of the said then Earl of, to, and in any the honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, & hereditaments of the said now Earl during the wedlock between him, the now Earl, & his lawful wife him surviving, remainder thereof further in manner & form as the same manors, lands, & tenements would remain by the foresaid Act if the foresaid proviso had never been had or made.

And the foresaid late Earl on the 28th day of July in the year of the Lord 1562nd & in the 4th year of the reign of the now Lady Queen at Castle Hedingham aforesaid composed, made, & declared his will & testament in writing & sealed by the seal at arms of him, the late Earl, & subscribed by his own hand, and by the same last will & testament assigned & appointed to the Lady Margery, now Countess of Oxenford, whom the same late Earl before the making of the said Act of Parliament had taken as [+his] lawful wife, which certain late [sic] Countess survived him, the late Earl, & is still surviving and is in full life, the foresaid manor of Tilbury and the rest of the other manors, lands, & tenements all & singular abovesaid with their appurtenances in the foresaid proviso of the said Act of Parliament recited & comprised among other things for term of the life of herself, the Countess, by these words following & in manner & form specified & declared in the foresaid inquisition in English words, viz., by virtue of one Act of the Parliament held at Westminster in the 5th & 6th years of the late Lord King of renowned memory Edward VI provided, he willed & bequeathed to his loving wife, Margery, Countess of Oxenford, in part of a recompense of & for all such dowry which she or any other in her name or for her might be able or is able at any time hereafter to claim, have, or demand out of any his lands & tenements except such which he gave to her being contained in a certain deed of entail, the manors of Tilbury juxta Clare, Downham, Easton Hall, Netherhall in Gestingthorpe, Garnons in Tendring, & Brownes tenement in Toppesfield in the county of Essex, & the manors of Easton Maudit, Thorpe Malford, & Marston Trussell with the appurtenances in the county of Northampton, & the manor of Bilton in the county of Warwick, & all those lands & tenements called Paynes in Pentlowe, to have & to hold the foresaid manors & the rest of the premises with all & singular their appurtenances to his forenamed wife for term of her life.

And further by the Act aforesaid by authority of the Parliament aforesaid it was and is provided & enacted as follows in these English words: Provided always & be it enacted by th' authority aforesaid that the King our Sovereign Lord, his heirs & successors, & all & every other person & persons of whom the premises or any parcel thereof be holden by any rent or service, shall have & enjoy all & singular such rents, tenements, tenures, seignories & services, wardships, liveries, & primer seisins of, in, out, & to the premises & every parcel thereof as our said Sovereign Lord the King, his heirs & successors, & the said other person & persons & their heirs & every of them, might, ought, or should have had as if the said now Earl were seised thereof in fee simple and should die of the 3rd part thereof seised in fee simple.

And after the making of the said Act of Parliament, namely on the second day of June in the 4th year [=2 June 1562] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen a certain indenture, bearing date the same day & year & in the Chancery of the said Lady Queen enrolled, was made between him, the late Earl, on the one part, & the right honourable Thomas, Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding, knight, on the other part, so to establish & continue the earldom of Oxenford, in English called the earldom of Oxenford, together with all offices, pre-eminences, honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, & hereditaments to the same appertaining in the name of lez Veres as of long time it was continued in the same name, and also to that intention that the living of the Lady Margery, Countess of Oxenford, & late wife of the said late Earl, might be augmented.

And by the same indenture among other things the foresaid late Earl for himself and his heirs granted, agreed, & promised to & with the forenamed Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding & their heirs that he, the late Earl, his heirs & assigns, from the time of the making of the said indenture would stand and be seised of & in all the foresaid manors of Tilbury juxta Clare, Downham, Easton Hall, Netherhall in Gestingthorpe, Garnons in Tendring, Brownes tenement in Toppesfield, Paynes in Pentlowe, Barwicks in Scotness, Gibcrack, Fingrith, & [sic] Blackmore in the county of Essex, and of & in the manors of Easton Maudit, Thorpe Malford, & Marston Trussell in the county of Northampton, and of & in the manor of Bilton in the county of Warwick, and of & in the manor of Fowlmere in the county of Cambridge, and of & in all other messuages, lands, tenements, rents, reversions, services, possessions, & hereditaments of the said late Earl whatsoever situate, lying, or being in Tilbury juxta Clare, Gestingthorpe, Walter Belchamp, Downham, Tendring, Toppesfield, Gibcrack, & Blackmore in the county of Essex, and in Easton Maudit, Thorpe Malford, Marston Trussell or elsewhere in the county of Northampton, & in Bilton or elsewhere in the county of Warwick, & in Fowlmere in the county of Cambridge, to the use of himself, the late Earl, for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, and after his decease to the use of the said Lady Margery, his wife, still surviving, for term of her life, and after her decease to the use of the forenamed Edward, now Earl of Oxenford, & of the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten, and for lack of such issue, to the use of the heirs males of the body of him, the late Earl, lawfully begotten, and for lack of such issue, remainder thereof further to such & to such heirs males of the name of lez Veres as in the foresaid indenture further is declared & expressed, as by the same indenture specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears, by virtue of which the same late Earl was of the same manors of Tilbury juxta Clare, Downham, & the rest of the premises last recited seised in his demesne as of free tenement, remainder thereof to the forenamed Lady Margery for term of her life, remainder thereof further in the form aforesaid, and thus seised, he died thereof seised.

And the foresaid late Earl being seised in his demesne as of fee of & in the manors of Warmingham, North Rode, Blacon, Ashton, Worleston, and of & in the messuage & eastern gate in English called the gate of Westchester within the county of Chester, by the indenture last recited further among other things completely and fully granted, agreed, & promised to and with the foresaid Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding & their heirs that he, the late Earl, his heirs & assigns, from the time of the making of the said indenture would stand & be seised of & in the manors of Warmingham, North Rode, Blacon, Ashton, Worleston, and of & in the messuage & gate in English called the gate of Westchester in the country of Chester, and of all other lands, tenements, rents, reversions, (blank) & hereditaments in the county of Chester to the use of himself, the late Earl, for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, and after his decease to the use of the said Lady Margery for term of her life, and after her decease to the use of the right heirs of him, the late Earl, forever, by virtue of which the same late Earl was seised of the same manors & the rest of the premises in his demesne as of free tenement for term of his life, remainder thereof further in the form aforesaid, and thus being seised of such estate, he died thereof seised.

And the foresaid late Earl by the foresaid indenture among other things granted & promised, & fully agreed for himself & his heirs to & with the foresaid late Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding, their heirs & executors, that he, the same late Earl, his heirs & assigns, from the time of the making of the same indenture would stand & be seised, so of the earldom of Oxenford, in English called the earldom of Oxenford, [+as] of the office of Lord Great Chamberlain of England, and of & in the castle and manor of Hedingham otherwise called Castle Heningham, and of and in the manors of Grays in Sible Hedingham, Prayors alias Bowers Hall, Peppers, Pevers, Little Yeldham, Earls Colne, Stansted Mountfichet, Burnells, Bentfield Bury, Bury Lodge, Nether Yeldham alias Much Yeldham, Sheriffs in Colne Engaine, Maldon with the members, Flanderswick, Vaux, Warehills, Parks in Gestingthorpe, and of & in the reversion of the said manor of Mountnessing alias Ging Mountney in the county of Essex, and of & in the manors of East Bergholt, Lavenham alias Overhall and Netherhall in Lavenham, & Bergholt Commandry in the county of Suffolk, and of & in the manor of Castle Camps in the county of Cambridge, and of all & singular his other messuages, lands, tenements, meadows, grazing lands, pastures, woods, underwoods, rents, reversions, services, possessions, & hereditaments situate, lying, & being in Castle Hedingham, Sible Hedingham, Little Yeldham, Earls Colne, Stansted Mountfichet, Gestingthorpe, Bentfield Bury, Much Yeldham, Maldon, Warehills, and of the foresaid reversion of the said manor of Mountnessing in the county of Essex, and of & in the foresaid manors of East Bergholt & Lavenham in the county of Suffolk, and of & in the manors of Castle Camps & Bartlow in the county of Cambridge to the uses, intentions, pledges, & trusts below declared,

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & signed by his own hand dated the 2nd day of July in the 2nd & 4th [sic] years [=2 July 1556] of the reigns of Philip & Mary, late King & Queen, granted to William Brewster the office of keeper of his little park of Castle Hedingham in the county of Essex, and of all his game & warren of coneyes being within the park, and appointed him, William, keeper & warrener of the park & of his warren aforesaid, to have & exercise the foresaid offices & any of them to the forenamed William by himself or by his sufficient deputy for term of his life immediately after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of Edward Brokesby, gentleman, & of Charles Tyrrell, esquire, and moreover the foresaid Earl granted for the exercise & occupation of the foresaid offices & of any of them herbage for 12 cows & 2 geldings and le windfall and browsing wood within his same park, and also a certain yearly rent of 100s 10d of lawful money of England, viz., for the keeping of his foresaid park 60s 10d, and for the foresaid office of warrener 40s by year, issuing yearly of his manor of Castle Hedingham aforesaid, to have & yearly perceive the foresaid yearly rent of 100s 10d immediately after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the foresaid Edward & Charles to the forenamed William & his assigns during the natural life of him, William, at two terms of the year, viz., to be paid at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, the first term of payment to begin immediately at that feast of the feasts aforesaid that first & next it might have happened to be vacant after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the said Edward & Charles, as is mentioned previously;

And also by the said deed the said Earl granted to the said William Brewster the office of bailiff & bailiwick of his said manor of Castle Hedingham, which a certain Robert Brewster & the forenamed Charles then had and held to the term of the life of them, and appointed him, William, bailiff of the said manor, to have & exercise the foresaid office of bailiff of the said manor to the forenamed William by himself or by his sufficient deputy for term of the life of him, William, immediately after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the foresaid Robert & Charles, and he, the Earl, by the said deed granted to the forenamed William for the occupation of the said office of bailiff of his manor of Hedingham a yearly rent of 60s 10d of lawful money of England yearly to issue of his foresaid manor, to have & yearly perceive the foresaid yearly rent of 60s 10d, immediately after the death or forfeiture of the said Robert & Charles, to the forenamed

William & his assigns during his life, to be paid yearly at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel equally, [+beginning] at that feast of the feasts aforesaid that first & next it might have happened to be vacant after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the said Robert & Charles;

And also the forenamed Earl by the same deed granted to the same William the office of keeper & keeping of his great park of Castle Hedingham and of all the game there being, to have & exercise that office by himself or by his sufficient deputy to the term of the life of him, William, immediately after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the said Edward Brokesby and of the foresaid John Tey, esquire, and moreover the foresaid Earl granted by the foresaid deed for the exercise & occupation of the office of keeper of his great park and of all the game there herbage for 12 cows & 2 geldings and le windfall & browsing wood within his foresaid park, and also a certain yearly rent of 100s of lawful money of England to issue of his manor of Castle Hedingham aforesaid and the said herbage and the said le windfall & browsing wood, and [sic] to have, hold & yearly perceive the foresaid yearly rent of 100s immediately after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the said Edward & John, as is mentioned previously;

And further the said late Earl by his foresaid deed for the consideration aforesaid granted to the same William the office of constable of his castle of Hedingham and appointed him, William, constable of his castle aforesaid, to have by himself or by his sufficient deputy for term of his life immediately after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of the foresaid John Tyrrell, knight, & of Charles Tyrrell, esquire, who have that office for term of the life of themselves, Charles & John, perceiving of & for the exercise & occupation of that office a certain yearly rent of £4 of lawful money of England after the death, surrender, or forfeiture of them, Charles & John, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the said yearly rent, as by the foresaid deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears.

And it remains in the hands of the Lady Queen from the 3rd day of August last past [=3 August 1562] before the taking of the foresaid inquisition by the death of the foresaid John de Vere, late Earl of Oxenford, for Edward, now Earl of Oxenford, son & next heir & elder male issue of the body of him, the late Earl, lawfully begotten and on the 12th day of April last past 12 years of age, as in the copy of a certain transcript of the inquisition found thereof at Stratford Langthorne in the foresaid county of Essex on the 18th day of January in the fifth year [=18 January 1563] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen before Richard Weston, one of the justices of the Lady Queen of the Court of Common Pleas, Robert Nowell, William Tooke, esquire, & John Glascock, gentleman, by virtue of letters patent of commission of the said Lady Queen in the nature of a writ of herself, the Lady Queen, of diem clausit extremum [=”he has closed his last day”] to inquire after the death of the right honourable man, John de Vere, late Earl of Oxenford, named in the foresaid letters patent, directed to the forenamed Richard Weston, Robert Nowell, & William Tooke, esquire, & John Glascock, gentleman, & others, and in the Chancery of the same Lady Queen remaining of record, more fully appears, and in the whole as above is valued by year by the foresaid inquisition, to be paid at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel equally, viz., for two such feasts falling within the time of this account.
