

PRO WARD 8/13 Part 23 of 78 EnglishCounty of Suffolk

Manor of Lavenham, parcel of the foresaid lands in the foresaid county.

Account of Lord Robert Dudley, farmer there for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: The same accountant is charged with £19 7s 7-1/2d of arrearages of the last account of the next preceding year, as appears there in the foot. Total: £19 7s 7-1/2d.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid manor of Lavenham with all & singular its members & appurtenances in the foresaid county of Suffolk of the yearly value of £34 6s 2d, held together with the manor of Earls Hall & others in the same county but of whom (s. & pl.) & by which services is unknown, of which certain manor & the rest of the premises with their appurtenances the foresaid John, late Earl of Oxenford, before his death was seised among others, as before in the account of the honour, castle, & manor of Hedingham more fully appears, and the foresaid late Earl by the foresaid indenture among other things granted, promised, & fully agreed for himself & his heirs to & with the forenamed Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding as similarly before in the same account more fully appears,

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 10th day of December in the first year [=10 December 1558] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen for & in consideration of good, true, & faithful service done & to be done to him by Robert Christmas, gentleman, gave & granted to the same Robert the keeping of his park called Lavenham park in the county of Suffolk with a certain house called the Lodge within the park aforesaid with herbage of 30 cows & 6 geldings, and appointed the said Robert keeper of his said park, to have & to hold to himself the said office with the foresaid herbage of 30 cows & 6 geldings with all profits & advantages to the same appertaining during the term of his life, to be occupied by himself or by his sufficient deputy, and the foresaid Earl also gave yearly £6 issuing & to issue of his manor of Lavenham with the appurtenances for term of his life for the exercise of the foresaid office, and the foresaid Earl also willed, if it might happen the foresaid annuity to be in arrears in part or in whole at any feast at which it ought to be paid, that it would be well allowed to the foresaid Robert & his assigns to enter & distrain in the foresaid manor with the appurtenances, & the distrains thus there taken licitly to carry off & detain until the foresaid annuity with the arrearages, if any have been, to the forenamed Robert & his assigns well & faithfully have been paid, as by the foresaid letters patents more fully appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand bearing date the penultimate day of October in the 3rd year

[=30 October 1561] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen for divers good and reasonable causes & considerations himself especially moving gave & granted to Thomas Bacon, gentleman, the office of bailiff or bailiwick of his manor of Lavenham in the county of Suffolk and of all & singular his lands, tenements, hereditaments, & possessions whatsoever within the foresaid manor & to the same manor in whatever manner belonging or appertaining, and made, ordained, & appointed him, Thomas Bacon, bailiff of the foresaid manor, to have, hold, enjoy, & exercise the foresaid office to the forenamed Thomas Bacon by himself or by his sufficient deputy or his sufficient deputies for & during the whole term of the natural life of him, Thomas, together with all & singular profits, commodities, advantages, & emoluments whatsoever to the same office in whatever manner belonging or appertaining and in so ample manner & form as Edward Glascock or any other or others for himself formerly has had, held, or enjoyed [+or] have had, held, or enjoyed, and the foresaid late Earl by his foresaid deed in consideration aforesaid gave & granted to the same Thomas Bacon for the exercise of the foresaid office a certain annuity or yearly rent of £4 of lawful money of England issuing & to issue of the foresaid manor at two terms of the year, viz., at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, and also the second crop of the meadow of Lavenham aforesaid called the Lord's meadow during the whole term of the natural life of himself, Thomas Bacon, and the foresaid late Earl by the foresaid deed granted that for non-payment of the said annuity or yearly rent it would be well allowed to the forenamed Thomas Bacon & his assigns to distrain in the foresaid manor of Lavenham, as by the same deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more plainly appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 4th day of May [sic?] in the second year [=4 May 1560] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth, Queen, gave & granted to John Turner, gentleman, the office of surveyor of all & singular the honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, woods, underwoods, & other hereditaments & possessions of the foresaid late Earl whatsoever, to have & to exercise the forenamed office to the forenamed John Turner by him or by his sufficient deputy or his sufficient deputies during the whole natural life of himself, John, with all & singular profits, commodities, & advantages whatsoever to the said office belonging or appertaining, and the foresaid late Earl by his foresaid deed gave & granted to the same John for the exercise & occupation of the foresaid office a certain annuity or yearly rent of £20 of lawful money of England issuing of the manors of Lavenham & Colne Wake & Great Bentley, to have & to hold the foresaid annuity or yearly rent of £20 to the foresaid John Turner & his assigns from the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel last past before the date of these presents for & during the whole term of his natural life, to be paid yearly at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, and the foresaid late Earl by his foresaid deed granted that for non-payment of the foresaid annuity it would be well allowed to the forenamed John Turner & his assigns to distrain in the foresaid manors of Lavenham, Colne Wake, & Great Bentley, as by the same deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand bearing date the 10th day of the month of August in the first year [=10 August 1547] of the reign of the late King Edward VI for & in consideration of good, true, & faithful service to him by John Turner, gentleman, previously done & thereafter to be done gave & granted to the same John Turner a certain annuity or yearly rent of £10 sterling issuing of his manors of Lavenham & Aldham in the county of Suffolk, to have the foresaid annuity or yearly rent to the forenamed John Turner & his assigns during his whole natural life to be paid yearly at the feasts of Saint Michael the Archangel & the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin by equal portions, the first payment thereof to be begun at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel next after the date of the said deed, and the foresaid late Earl granted that for non-payment of the said annuity or yearly rent it would be well allowed to the forenamed John Turner & his assigns to distrain in the foresaid manors of Lavenham & Aldham, as by the same deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 10th day of March in the first year [=10 March 1559] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen in consideration of faithful service to him by John Davy previously done & to be done gave & granted to the same John Davy a certain annuity or yearly rent of 40s issuing of the manor of Lavenham, to be paid yearly at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel, to have the said annuity of 40s by himself or by his sufficient deputy during the natural life of the forenamed John to be paid yearly by the hands of the bailiff there or of the receiver or other officers for the time being, and the foresaid late Earl by the foresaid deed granted that for non-payment of the foresaid annuity it would be well allowed to the forenamed John & his assigns to enter & distrain in the foresaid manor of Lavenham, as by the foresaid deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 20th day of January in the 3rd & 4th years [=20 January 1557] of the reigns of the late King & Queen Philip & Mary granted to William Cordell, knight, under the description of William Cordell, esquire, the office of steward of the manor of Lavenham in the county of Suffolk, & appointed the same William steward of the foresaid manor, to have the foresaid office to the same William to exercise by him or by his sufficient deputy for term of the life of him, William, with all profits & commodities to the same office from of old belonging, in so ample manner & form as John Lucas lately has had, and the foresaid Earl by the foresaid deed granted to the same William for the exercise of the foresaid office a certain yearly rent of 40s of lawful money of England out of the foresaid manor for term of the life of him, William, to be paid yearly at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the said annuity as by the foresaid deed in manifest evidences more fully appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 4th day of May in the 4th & fifth years [=4 May 1558] of the reigns of Philip & Mary, late King & Queen, granted to Thomas Fowle for service in teaching Edward de Vere, his son, Viscount Bulbeck, done and to be done a certain annuity of £10 issuing of his manor of Lavenham in the county of Suffolk, to have the said annuity to the said Thomas Fowle & his assigns during his life, to be perceived yearly at two terms of the year, viz., at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the said annuity as by the foresaid deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully appears.

And it remains in the hands of the Lady Queen as above in the account of the honour, castle, & manor of Castle Hedingham in the county of Essex more fully appears, and in the whole as above is valued by the foresaid inquisition, to be paid at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel equally, viz., for two such feasts falling within the time of this account. Nothing here in charge because it has been received thereof to the foresaid Lady Queen after in the account of Lord Robert Dudley, farmer of the manor of East Bergholt in the county of Suffolk, parcel of the foresaid inheritance, in the section "Farm by indenture" within the total of £803 9s 8-1/2d, as in the same more fully will be able to appear. Total: none.

Increase of rents by the survey of the feodary

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the increase of rents of the foresaid lands at £35 5-1/2d by year thus assessed by the survey thereof made by John Southwell, feodary, surveyor, & receiver of all the lands of the wards of the Lady Queen in the county of Suffolk, & remaining of record in the Court of Wards & Liveries of the Lady Queen, more than by the foresaid inquisition is found, to be paid at the foresaid feasts equally. Nothing here in charge for the reason alleged above in the section "Issues of the lands by the inquisition". Total: none.

Issues of the fairs

Not yet received of any profit resulting of arising from the issues of the fairs there as were held in normal years at 2s by year in the life of the late Earl for the reason which is alleged above in the section "Issues of the lands by the inquisition". Total: none.

Perquisites of the courts

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the fees & perquisites of the courts held there this year for the reason abovesaid. Total: none.

In the account of the manor of East Bergholt.

Total of the foresaid arrearages: £19 7s 7-1/2d, of which he is discharged here of £19, as of all moneys by the foresaid accountant received of part of the £19 7s 7-1/2d of the moneys charged above in the section "Arrearages" of this year for part of the issues of the foresaid manor owing for the moiety of the year ended at the feast of Saint Michael in the 4th year [=29 September 1562] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen, because it has been received thereof in the account of the foresaid accountant, keeper or farmer of the manor of East Bergholt with the appurtenances, parcel of the foresaid lands, of this year, as in the foot of the same account more fully will be able to appear. And there is owing: 7s 7-1/2d.

Of which

There is respited

To him 3s 2d for a certain yearly rent of one croft lately in the tenure of (blank) Spring at 6s 4d by year; thereupon it is placed here in respite, namely for the moiety of the year ended at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 4th year [=29 September 1562] of the Lady Elizabeth, Queen, because it is unknown where the said lands lie, as is certified by the book of the particular auditor on this account: 3s 2d. Total: 3s 2d.

And there remains beyond: 4s 5-1/2d.

Total

Above

Thomas Risby, one of the tenants of the foresaid lands held of the late Earl called Bowers, at 8s 11d by year of moneys in his hands remaining unpaid of the issues of his foresaid tenement, namely for the moiety of the year ended at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 4th year [=29 September 1562] of the reign of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen, still in arrears: 4s 5-1/2d.
