And the said Lord Robert Dudley covenanteth & granteth for him & his assigns by these presents that he, the said Lord Robert Dudley, & his assigns over & besides the said rent before reserved shall also content & pay to the Receiver-General of the said Court to the use of our said Sovereign Lady or of her heirs & successors all such sums of money which shall hereafter be found due & payable for the mean rates & profits of the said lordships, manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances from the last half year of the said term until such time as the said lordships, manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances be prosecuted and had out of the hands & possession of our said Sovereign Lady or of her heirs & successors by livery, ouster-le-main or otherwise, according to the order of the law;

And the said Lord Robert Dudley covenanteth & granteth for him & his assigns by these presents that he, said Lord Robert Dudley, & his assigns during the said term shall at his & their own proper costs & charges make or cause to be made all manner of necessary & needful reparations in & upon the said lordships, manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances when & as often as need shall require, except upon the manor[s] of Hedingham & Earls Colne aforesaid with th' appurtenances, for which the said Lord Robert Dudley shall have all such sums of money as he shall necessarily employ upon the said 2 houses according as shall be thought meet & necessary for [sic?] the said Master & Council for the time being, & so sufficiently repaired in th' end of the said term shall leave the same,

& shall discharge, content & pay yearly all rents resolute & other charges other than tenths lawfully demanded & going out of the said lordships, manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances;

And likewise also shall from time to time permit & suffer the said feodaries for the time being to survey the said lordships, manors & lands, as well for the knowledge of the performance of the covenants contained in this indenture on the behalf of the said Lord

Robert Dudley & his assigns, as of all wastes, incommodities, hurts & decays already fallen & which may arise & grow to th' hindrance of the said heir or to th' impairment of the Queen's Majesty's right and profit, and shall at all times hereafter be contented to receive & fulfil all such further orders which the said Master & Council shall take for the redress of any default found by the said survey, as neither the Queen's Majesty nor her Highness' said ward do sustain any loss or prejudice by their negligence or for lack of their help to whom the charge thereof appertaineth;

And the said Lord Robert Dudley covenanteth & granteth for him & his assigns by these presents that if at any time hereafter by the said survey of the Master & Council or any other by them authorized, it be found that the said manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances were of better or more yearly value or rent at the time of the making hereof than the rent before reserved doth amount unto, or that any rent or profit whereof the Queen's Majesty ought to be answered be omitted & not truly reserved upon this lease, that then the said Lord Robert Dudley & his assigns shall content & pay yearly during the said term to the said feodaries for the time being to her Highness' use at the feasts before limited for payment of the said rent the overplus found by the said survey to be above the said rent of £803 9s 8-1/2d, & above the profits of the courts, parks or the demesne lands belonging or appertaining to the said Earl's houses, & shall likewise content & pay the arrearages of the same overplus from the beginning of this lease & grant;

And the said Lord Robert Dudley covenanteth & granteth for him & his assigns by these presents that he, the said Lord Robert Dudley, & his assigns shall cause the courts heretofore had and used upon the said manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances to be yearly kept by the stewards of the said Edward, now Earl of Oxford, or by such other as shall be appointed by the said Master & Council, the court rolls engrossed & surely laid up together with all other evidences or writings coming to th' hands of the said Lord Robert Dudley or his assigns concerning th' inheritance of the said heir, as the[y] may come to him at the time of his full age without concealment, embezzling, or loss of them or any parcel of them to the knowledge of the said Lord Robert Dudley or his assigns;

And further also that neither he, the said Lord Robert Dudley, or his assigns shall do or suffer to be done any strip, waste, spoil, ruin or disorder upon the said manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances or any part thereof, ne wittingly decay any rent or service belonging to the same, nor expel or put out any tenant or tenants holding any part of the premises other than such as hold the parks & demesne lands of the said now Earl [ ] as they shall fall during the minority of the said heir without knowledge & agreement of the said Master & Council for the time being, and if at any time hereafter during the said term any strip, waste, spoil, disorder, intrusion or encroachment be unlawfully done or made upon the said manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances or any part or parcel thereof to the prejudice of the inheritance of the said heir, that then the said Lord Robert Dudley & his assigns, as much as in him & them lieth, shall withstand & defend the same, & for lack of power & sufficient authority so to do shall forthwith, after knowledge thereof had, certify the same to the Master & Council aforesaid for the time being, & receive & prosecute forth their order for the reformation thereof to & for th' advancement of the Queen's Majesty's interest & right & for the safeguard of th' inheritance of the said heir;

And it is agreed on the behalf of the Queen's Majesty by the said Master & Council that the said Lord Robert Dudley & his assigns during the said term shall have & take upon the said manors, lands & other the premises by th' assignment of the said Master & Council for the time being, or any other by them authorized, sufficient housebote, firebote, hedgebote, ploughbote and cartbote, only to be used & expended in & about the said manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances;

And the said Lord Robert Dudley covenanteth & granteth for him & his assigns by these presents that he, the said Lord Robert Dudley, & his assigns shall not give, grant, commit, bargain or sell this lease or his interest in the same to any person or persons without knowledge & agreement of the said Master & Council for the time being, & shall once in every year during the said term bring or send to the Auditor-General of the said Court of Wards & Liveries his acquittances declaring payment of the rent before reserved or hereafter growing upon this lease, and also bring the same lease within one half year next after the date thereof to have the same there enrolled as the same Auditor may have perfect knowledge & understanding how to charge & allow the said rent or other charge arising upon the same lease at all times when need shall require;

And it is provided on the behalf of the Queen's Majesty by the said Master & Council that if at any time hereafter during the said term it fortune the said rent of £803 9s 8-1/2d to be behind unpaid in part or in all after any of the said feasts in the which it ought to be paid by the space of 2 months, or if any of the said covenants be broken, unkept & not reformed within 3 months next after lawful warning to him or them thereof given, that then this present lease to be void & of none effect;

And that it shall be lawful for the said Master & Council for the time being or any other by them authorized into the said manors, lands & other the premises with th' appurtenances & every part thereof not only to re-enter, and the same to repossede & continue to th' use of the Queen's Majesty, but also to distrain the goods & cattles of the said Lord Robert Dudley & his assigns, & the same to drive away, withhold, bargain & sell to th' use of the Queen's Majesty until her Highness be fully answered & paid, as well of the rents & of th' arrearages thereof as of the value of the detriment & damage sustained by the breaking of the said covenants or of any clause or article before mentioned, this lease or anything therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding;

In witness whereof to thone part of these indentures remaining with the said Lord Robert Dudley our said Sovereign Lady's seal of her Grace's Court of Wards & Liveries with th' advice of the Master & Council of her Grace's said Court is affixed & set, & to thother part remaining with our said Sovereign Lady in her Grace's said Court the said Lord Robert Dudley hath put to his seal & subscribed his name the 22nd day of October in the fifth year [=22 October 1563] of our said Sovereign Lady's most gracious reign.

Viz., for two such feasts falling within the time of this account. And there remains:
Total: £803 9s 8-1/2d

Total of the whole receipt with the arrearages: £1042 10s 7-3/4d, to which he is charged with £19 as of all moneys by the foresaid accountant received of part of the issues of the manor of Lavenham with the appurtenances, parcel of the foresaid lands, owed for the middle of the year ended at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 4th year [=29 September 1562] of the same Lady Queen, as in the same in the foot more fully appears, and thus by the totals he owes forthwith: £1061 10s 7-3/4d, of which there is allowed to him £4 of moneys paid by the said accountant to William Cordell, knight, Master of the Rolls of the Lady Queen, steward of the foresaid manor of Lavenham, at 40s by year thus to him by the foresaid late Earl of Oxenford granted for the reason of the exercise of that office. It is allowed here by virtue of the warrant of the foresaid Lady Queen, so signed by her own hand as sealed under the signet of the same Lady Queen, dated the 19th day of March in the fifth year [=19 March 1563] of her reign and directed to the Master & Council of the Court of Wards & Liveries of the same Lady Queen for the allowance, so of the foresaid fee as of divers other fees & annuities to divers persons by the forenamed late Earl of Oxenford granted, as appears by a certain decree made thereof in the Court of Wards & Liveries of the foresaid Lady Queen in Easter term in the 6th year of her reign, of which certain decree the tenor follows in these words.

In Easter term in the 6th year of the Lady Elizabeth, Queen:

Where the right honourable John De Vere, late Earl of Oxenford, deceased, in his lifetime as well in consideration of good counsel to him given & to be given, and also for true & faithful service to him, the said Earl, to be had & done, as for divers & sundry other good & reasonable considerations him thereunto specially moving, by his several deeds severally to divers persons did give & grant divers & sundry offices, fees & annuities for term of their natural lives, that is to say:

To Sir William Cordell, knight, Master of the Rolls, the stewardship of the manor of Lavenham with the fee of 40s by year;

To Henry Golding, the constableness of the castle of Camps, the keeping of the park and bailiwick there, with the yearly fee of £9 11s 3d [sic?] out of the same manor for th' exercising of the same office, and also one annuity of £20 by year going out of the manor of Thornecombe;

To Robert Christmas, the keeping of the park of Lavenham with £6 yearly for the fee of the same, & £20 yearly going out of the lands & tenements of the said Earl in the county of Chester;

To John Turner, the general surveyorship of all the said Earl's lands with the yearly fee of £20 for the exercising of the same going out of the said manor of Lavenham;

To John Booth, the keeping of Colne Park with £6 [sic?] yearly fee;

To Robert Read, the bailiwick of Bumpstead with 60s yearly fee;

To Thomas Bacon, the bailiwick of Lavenham with the yearly fee of £4;

To John Lovell, one yearly annuity of £10 going out of the manor of Camps;

To George Tyrrell, one yearly annuity [+of] £6 13s 4d going out of the manor of Hedingham;

And also to Edward Clere, £20 by year out of the manor of Thornecombe;

To John Davy, one annuity of 40s going out of the manor of Lavenham;

To Richard Wood, the bailiwick of Whitchurch with £4 out of the said manor for the exercising of the same;

To John Clench, the stewardship of certain lands in the county of Buckingham with the fee of 40s [sic?] per annum;

To William Brewster, the keeping of the park of Hedingham, the constableness of the castle there, & th' office of bailiwick with the fee of £17 20d for th' exercising of the same offices, & also one annuity of £6 13s 4d out of the manor of Hedingham;

To Thomas Fowle, one annuity of £10 out of the manor of Lavenham;

To Thomas Phillips & Jane his wife, one annuity of £13 6s 8d of the lands in the county of Hertford;

And to Anthony Stapleton £13 6s 8d yearly during his natural life for his counsel given & to be given unto the said Earl;

& to John Turner for his service done & to be done unto the said Earl, one annuity or yearly fee of £10 during his natural life out of the manor of Lavenham;

& divers other fees to sundry of the councillors & trusty servants of the said Earl, the payment of which said fees & annuities have been deferred ever since the death of the said late Earl, as well of purpose to have the said deeds of grants truly proved to be sealed & delivered as the several deeds of the said late Earl as also for that the Queen's Majesty might be made privy thereunto before any allowance thereof should pass;

And now forasmuch as the said several grants have been severally proved to be the several deeds of the late Earl & delivered by the said Earl as his deeds before commissioners appointed for the finding of th' office after the death of the said Earl, & be found & entered in the said office;

And forasmuch also as the Queen her Majesty hath been made privy thereunto & hath thereupon signified her pleasure in this Court by a bill signed with her most gracious hand & signed with her signet & remaining in this honourable Court of record, & by the same authorizeth her trusty & well-beloved councillor Sir William Cecil, knight, Master of her Wards & Liveries, & the rest of the Council of this Court by their discretions to allow by decree or other order in the said Court all or such of the said grants as to them shall be thought convenient, as well for the time sithence the possessions of the said late Earl came unto the Queen her Highness' hands by the minority of the now Earl as also during the time as the same possessions or any of them be & shall be & remain in the said Queen her Highness' hands, & for such further & so long time as to the said Master of the said Wards & Liveries & the Council of the said Court should be thought requisite & needful, and the said bill assigned should be a sufficient discharge to the Master of the Wards & Liveries & the said Council to pass the same by decree or other order in the said Court, & also good warrant to the Receiver to make payment of the same & to th' Auditor to make allowance for the same from time to time according unto the said order touching the premises, as by the said bill assigned remaining in this honourable Court as before is said doth at large more plainly appear;

Whereupon the first day of May in this present term of Easter [=1 May 1564] it is ordered & decreed by the right honourable Sir William Cecil, knight, Principal Secretary to the said Queen her Highness, & Master of her Court of Wards & Liveries, & by the Council of the same Court in form as followeth, that is to say, that all the said persons before specified & named shall have & enjoy all their said several fees & annuities before rehearsed according to their said several grants & assurances, & also shall have & enjoy all th' arrearages of the same annuities & fees & other profits to them severally granted as is before [+said];

Provided also that where before it appeareth that divers of the said annuities be going out of divers manors, lands & tenements which be at these presents in the possession of the now Earl, the Queen's Majesty's ward, & come to him as a purchaser, it is now ordered that the same shall be paid out of such of the manors, lands & tenements as be appointed to her Majesty for her third part for that her Highness hath more than a full third part, & for that also the Queen's Majesty's pleasure is they should so be paid according to the tenor of her Highness' said warrant in such manner & form & at such days & times as are contained in their several grants thereof, and also for & during all such time & times as the possessions of the late Earl shall remain in the said Queen's Highness' hands by reason of the minority of the said now Earl if the said Master and Council shall so think it meet and convenient & make no order hereafter to the contrary, and that this present order and decree shall be as well a sufficient warrant to the Receiver-General of this honourable Court & to the bailiffs and farmers of the said now Earl to pay the said fees and annuities yearly to the persons before specially named according to the purpose of the said several grants, as also to the Auditor or Auditors for the allowance of the same during the time appointed and ordered by this decree;

And furthermore it is ordered by the said Master and Council that all person & persons that hereafter shall be by them admitted to enjoy any other fees & annuities to them granted by the said late Earl shall have and enjoy in like manner the benefit of this present order & decree in as large manner as the persons before specially named shall or may do;

Provided always that if her Majesty shall lack of a 3rd part or of so much as she ought to have by reason of the allowance of the said annuities, that then the said Master and Council may & shall at all times hereafter take up [+of] the residue of the lands & tenements of the said Earl so much as shall make a full third part, or so much as her Highness of right ought to have;

Provided also that the said Master and Council may at any time hereafter upon such consideration as to them shall seem reasonable revoke the allowance of all the same annuities or of so many of them as they shall think meet & convenient, anything in this decree to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Viz., in allowance of this kind, namely, for two entire years ended at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in this 6th year [=29 September 1564] of the foresaid Lady Elizabeth now Queen according to the foresaid rate by year by virtue of the foresaid decree, beyond 20s for the half year for the foresaid fee owed at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 4th year [=1562] of the same Lady Queen allowed in the account of Edward Glascock, bailiff of the manor of Lavenham in the county of Suffolk, parcel of the foresaid lands, from the fifth year of the foresaid Lady Queen, as there more fully appears.

And to the same, £15 of like moneys by the said accountant paid to Robert Christmas, keeper of the foresaid park of Lavenham, at £6 by year here allowed in the name of his fee, so by virtue of the warrant of the foresaid Lady Queen specified in the item next above as by virtue of the foresaid decree of this year in the same item enrolled at large, viz., in such allowance of the fee, namely for two entire years & a half ended at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in this 6th year [=1564] of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen for the reason aforesaid.
