
PRO WARD 8/13 Part 53 of 78 English

Manors of Barwicks & Scotneys with the appurtenances in the foresaid county, parcel of the foresaid lands and now in the jointure of the Lady Countess of Oxenford.

Account of the tenants & occupants of the foresaid manors for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: None, as appears in the foot of the account of the next preceding year.
Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid manors of Barwicks and Scotneys with the appurtenances in the foresaid county of the yearly value of £32 5s 5-1/2d by year, held together with the manor of Grays in Sible Hedingham & others in the foresaid county but of whom (s. & pl.) & by which services is unknown, so for because a long time before the death of the foresaid late Earl & after the making of the said Act of Parliament a certain Edmund Beaupre & Edward Thursby, esquire, recovered against the foresaid late Earl the foresaid manors of Barwicks & Scotneys in the county of Essex by a writ of the Lord King of formedon in le descendere, and by virtue of that recovery the same Edmund Beaupre & Edward Thursby were thereof seised in their demesne as of fee-tail, and thus thereof being seised, the foresaid late Earl & the forenamed Lady Margery, his wife, now Countess of Oxenford, purchased for themselves & for the heirs of himself, the late Earl, of the same Edmund & Edward the foresaid manors of Barwicks & Scotneys with the appurtenances, & for the assurance of themselves, the late Earl & the Lady Margery, a certain fine was levied of the same manors with the appurtenances between the same late Earl & the forenamed Lady Margery, Countess of Oxenford, querents, & the said Edmund Beaupre & Edward Thursby, deforciant, by which certain fine the same Edmund & Edward acknowledged the foresaid manors with the appurtenances to be the right of himself, the late Earl, as those which the same Earl & Margery had of the gift of the foresaid Edmund & Edward, and they remised & quit-claimed them from themselves & their heirs to the foresaid late Earl & Lady Margery & to the heirs of himself, the late Earl, as by the same fine among the records of Philip & Mary, late King & Queen of England, of their Court of Common Pleas at Westminster of Easter term in the first & second years [=1555] of the reigns of themselves, the late King & Queen, more fully appears of record, by virtue of which the same late Earl & the same Lady Margery were seised of the same manors with the appurtenances, viz., the same Earl in his demesne as of fee, and the foresaid Lady Margery in her demesne as of free tenement, and thus being seised the same late Earl died thereof seised, and the Lady Margery survived him & has held herself within by right of survivorship, and is thereof solely seised in her demesne as of free tenement, the reversion thereof belonging after her decease to Edward, now Earl of Oxenford, & his heirs, as for because by the foresaid indenture specified above within the account of the foresaid manor of Tilbury in the section "Issues of the lands by the inquisition" the foresaid late Earl granted, agreed, & promised to & with the forenamed Duke of Norfolk,

Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding & their heirs that he, the late Earl, his heirs & assigns, from the time of the making of the foresaid indenture would stand & be seised of & in the foresaid manors of Barwicks & Scotneys & others to the uses as in the foresaid indenture in the foresaid account specified at large more fully is declared.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 12th day of the month of March in the second & 3rd years [=12 March 1556] of the reigns of the late King & Queen Philip & Mary granted to [+John Church the elder &] John Church the younger a certain yearly rent of 106s 8d of usual money of England issuing of his manors of Scotneys & Barwicks in Toppesfield in the county of Essex, to have the foresaid yearly rent to the forenamed John Church the elder & John Church the younger & to the survivor of them & their assigns during their lives at two terms of the year, viz., at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, with the office of steward of his manors of Lamarsh & Colne Wake in the county of Essex and of the manors of Hinxton, Swaffham & [sic] Bulbeck in the county of Cambridge, according to the effect of the foresaid deed, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the foresaid rent as by the said deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears.

And which certain Lady Margery still survives & is in full life. Total: none.

Total of the whole receipt: none.
