

PRO WARD 8/13 Part 74 of 78 English

Manor of Lamarsh with the appurtenances in the foresaid county of Essex, parcel of the foresaid lands and now assigned towards the last will of the said late Earl.

Account of Henry Golding, esquire, Robert Christmas, & John Turner, gentleman, executors of the said late Earl [+&] occupants or collectors of the rents of the foresaid lands for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: None, as appears in the foot of the account of the next preceding year.
Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid manor of Lamarsh with the appurtenances in the foresaid county of the yearly value of £30 11s 3d, held together with the manor of Colne Wake here after below specified of the Lady Queen in chief by knight-service, viz., by the service of the 20th part of one knight's fee, because together with the foresaid manors of Wivenhoe, Newers, & Battleswick above specified and with other manors, lands, & tenements here after below specified, the foresaid manor with the appurtenances is assigned towards the performance of the last will of the foresaid late Earl of Oxenford, so by the foresaid Act of Parliament above specified at large in the account of the honour, castle, & manor of Hedingham in the foresaid county of Essex as by the indenture above similarly specified in the account of the foresaid manors of Wivenhoe, Newers, & Battleswick in the foresaid county, for the term of 20 years next following after the death of the foresaid late Earl.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the last day of May in the 36th year [=31 May 1544] of the reign of the late King Henry VIII for & in consideration of good & faithful service to him by James Gosnold & Robert Gosnold previously done & hereafter to be done gave & granted to the same James Gosnold & Robert Gosnold the office of bailiff of his manors of Lamarsh & Colne Wake in the county of Essex and also the office of keeper of a certain wood called Lamarsh park together with all & singular the profits, advantages, liberties, commodities, privileges, [+&] pre-eminences whatsoever to the foresaid offices & to any of them belonging or appertaining, to have, levy, exercise, occupy, & enjoy the foresaid office of bailiff & keeper of the foresaid wood with the appurtenances to the forenamed James Gosnold & Robert Gosnold & their assigns by them or by their sufficient deputy or sufficient deputies as soon as possible that office after the date of the foresaid deed might have happened to be vacant by the death, surrender of the said office, or otherwise in whatever manner during the natural life of the said James & Robert Gosnold & the survivor of them in so ample manner & form as John Sinclair, knight, or his deputy formerly has had, occupied, & enjoyed, [+or] have had, held or enjoyed for the exercise of the said office, and the foresaid late Earl by his foresaid deed gave & granted to the same James & Robert Gosnold for exercising that office a certain annuity or yearly rent of £9 2s 6d sterling, to have & hold the foresaid annuity or yearly rent to the forenamed James & Robert Gosnold immediately & as soon as that office first & next might have happened to be vacant during the natural life of themselves, James & Robert, & the survivor of them, to be paid yearly at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel, the first payment of the said annuity or yearly rent beginning first & next after the feast of the foresaid feasts as soon as possible the foresaid office might have happened to be vacant after the death of the said John Sinclair, and the foresaid Earl by the foresaid deed granted that for non-payment of the said annuity it would be well allowed to the forenamed James Gosnold & Robert Gosnold & their assigns to distrain in the foresaid manor & the rest of the premises, as by the same deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain other deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 12th day of March in the 2nd & 3rd years [=12 March 1556] of the reigns of the late King & Queen Philip & Mary granted to John Church the elder & John Church the younger a certain yearly rent of £6 [sic?] 6s 8d of usual money of England issuing of his manors of Scotness & Barwick in Toppesfield in the county of Essex, to have the foresaid yearly rent to the forenamed John Church the elder & John Church the younger & the survivor of them & their assigns during his life at two terms of the year, viz., at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, with the office of steward of his manors of Lamarsh & Colne Wake in the county of Essex and of the manors of Hinxton & Swaffham Bulbeck in the county of Cambridge according to the tenor & effect of the foresaid deed, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the foresaid yearly rent as by the said deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears.

And which certain last will is still not fulfilled. Total: none.

Total of the whole receipt: none
